Spicy Pumpkin Pie Is Holiday Treat

The family will really cheer when you serve this delicious-tasting, spicy pumpkin pie that's easy-as-pie to prepare this new way. Start by rolling the pastry dough out on a square of the new, quilted aluminum foil that's available now in rolls 14 inches wide. Kaiser broiler foil is a stronger, heavier foil that's more resistant to tearing so it lends itself to more household tasks. You'll want a square about 14 inches in size. No need to flour the foil, just roll out so pastry round is roughly 1 1/2 inches wider than the pie pan. Trim with dull table knife. Then simply lift the foil with the dough and center it in the pie pan with the foil next to the pan. Next, make a silvery stand-up collar to keep the edge from over-browning and to prevent bollovers.

SPICY PUMPKIN PIE

Pastry for 9-inch pie
2 cups canned or mashed cooked pumpkin
1/2 tsp. salt
2 large eggs
1 1/2 cups milk

3/4 cup brown sugar
2 tbsps. white sugar
1 1/4 tps. cinnamon
1/2 tsp. ginger
1/4 tsp. nutmeg
1/4 tsp. ground cloves

Line pan with pastry rolled out on quilted foil. Flute edge of crust and trim off corners of foil to make upturned collar. Combine ingredients for filling and beat well. Pour filling mixture into foil and pastry lined pan. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 45 to 55 mins. or until done. Test by inserting silver knife into pie 2 inches from edge. When knife comes out clean, pie is done. Center will be soft but will set as pie cools. Serve warm or cool, topped with whipped cream.
