Double Ring Ceremony Unites Boardman Couple November 30

By Mary Lee Marlow
Miss Carol Ann Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hamilton, became the bride of Larry Everett Thorpe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe, in a double-ring ceremony at 8 p. m. Nov. 30, at the Community church. The candlelight service was performed by the Rev. A. E. Davis, pastor of the Methodist church, Hermiton, before the altar decorated with baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. John Partlow sang "I Love You Truly," and "Always", accompanied by Mrs. Lowell Shattuck, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a waltz length gown of ivory brocaded taffeta, fashioned with three-quarter sleeves and scalloped V-shaped neckline. Her finger tip veil was held in place with orange blossoms. It was borrowed from Mrs. Harold Marlow, who wore it at her wedding just a year ago. The bride wore rhinestone necklace and earrings, and carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Something old was her necklace, something new her gown. She wore a blue garter made and presented to her by the groom's mother. She had a penny in her shoe which was minted the year of her birth.

Miss Lorelei Hamilton, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Marie Potts was bridesmaid. They wore identical frocks of turquoise taffeta and carried nosegays of yellow chrysanthemums.

Teresa Thorpe, sister of the groom, was flower girl, and the candlelighters were Sandra Thorpe, sister of the groom, and Alberta Carpenter, cousin of the bride. All three wore frocks of yellow taffeta.

Bill Thorpe, brother of the groom, was best man, and Jim Thorpe, brother of the groom, was usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the grange hall, with about 75 guests attending. The two-tiered cake, topped by bridal figurines, centered a lace-covered table, while the punch and coffee were served from a separate lace-covered table. Bouquets of chrysanthemums were used about the room. After the first piece of cake was cut by the couple it was cut and served by Mrs. Bob Smith of Baker, aunt of the groom. Mrs. Delbert Carpenter poured the coffee, and Mrs. Glen Carpenter served at the punch bowl. Mrs. Ed Kunze was in charge of the reception, assisted by Mrs. Claud Coats, Mrs. Elvin Ely, Mrs. Frank Marlow, Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. Charles Anderegg, Mrs. Don Downey and Mrs. Bobby Stewart.
