Sherrell-Krebs Vows Read In Arlington Church Saturday

In a setting of blue and silver, Donna Mae Krebs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Krebs became the bride of Richard Alva Sherrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ava E. Sherrell Saturday, December 29 at 4 p. m. double ring candle-light ceremony performed in the Methodist church at Arlington, Ore., with the pastor Rev. A. N. Boyer officiating. The Chancel of the church was decorated with large baskets of white chrysanthemums with blue ribbon bows with 4 large candle-bras containing 7 blue candles tied with the same blue bows as the baskets.

In each window was a silver juniper arrangement with a candle in the center. For the service the bride stood under an arch of the silvered juniper with two silver bells in the center with blue ribbon bows. The end of each pew carried out the same color scheme. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father wore a Cahill original of white imported silk satin with pleated tulle overskirt with a short train and side panes of the material trimmed with pearl alendon lace. The bodice of the dress was of the same lace with a scalloped neckline, her fingertip veil fell from a crown of the same lace. Her flowers were white bouvardia and an orchid.

Her sister in law, Mrs. Richard Krebs of Cecil was her matron of honor, Mrs. Carroll Donovan of The Dalles and Miss Nancy Marston, niece of the groom were bridesmaids. The bride's niece Jerrie Krebs was flower girl and all wore identical afternoon length dresses of changeable blue taffeta and carried white fur muffs trimmed with silver juniper. They wore a band of the same fur in their hair. The small flower girl carried a silver basket of button mums. Monty Evans, the brides cousin from Heppner was ringbearer.

Best man for the groom was his brother, Phillip Sherrell, and the ushers were the bride's brother, Richard Krebs of Cecil and the groom's cousin Elvin Hale of Portland. All the men of the bridal party wore pale blue dinner jackets.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Krebs wore a sheath afternoon dress of blue taffeta trimmed in self color alencon lace and beige accessories. Mrs. Sherrell's dress was a two piece dress of blue changeable taffeta trimmed with rhinestones, both mothers wore orchid corsages.

Preceding the ceremony Don Becker, cousin of the bride sang "If I Could Tell You" and during the ceremony the "Wedding Prayer" and as the bride left the church he sang "True Love." Mrs. A. N. Boyer accompanied him and also played the wedding music.

A reception was held immediately followed the ceremony in the church parlors. The bride's table was covered with a white cloth in the center of which was the three tiered brides cake topped with group of silver bells and trimmed with white roses. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of cake it was then cut and served by the bride's aunt, Mrs. S. A. Becker of Long Beach, California. Pouring were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Roy Hurst and Mrs. George Krebs, Mrs. Henry Krebs, Mrs. Dewey West, Sr., Mrs. John Steiger of Portland and Mrs. Carey Ainscough, aunts of the groom presided over the punchbowl in which floated a block of Orange Blossoms brought by Mrs. Becker from California. Mrs. Bill Rietmann of Ione, cousin of the bride had charge of the guest book and Miss Pamela Marston, niece of the groom passed the groom's cake.

For her honeymoon which is to be spent in the Willamette Valley Mrs. Sherrell wore a brown suit with blue accessories and a beige fur stole, for her corsage she wore the orchid from her bouquet. After the honeymoon they will make their home in Fort Ord, California where the groom is stationed with the U. S. Army. After the couple had left, a buffet dinner was held for relatives and friends at the Krebs' home. Mrs. Arthur Fletcher and Mrs. Emil Kumm assisted the hosts in serving.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann, of Ione; Miss Pat Wright, Heppner; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McClintock and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Bafus all of Cecil.
