EITHLEY-SCHWARZIN WEDDING EVENT SUNDAY AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Miss Virginia Schwarzin, daughter of Mrs. Clarence Frank dresen, became the bride of Erett LaVerne Keithley, son of Mrs. Everett Keithley, today at a two o'clock double ceremony at the Christian church. The Rev. Charles Knox officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Felix Schwarzin, Seattle, was gowned in pink tulle taffeta, ballerina length and wore long pink gloves and a veil held in place with a headband of pearl trimmed pink tulle. She carried pink roses and white carnations.

The maid of honor, Miss Dale Min, wore a blue satin brocade afternoon dress and carried white carnations. Candle lighters were Sharon Keithley, sister of the groom, dressed in green and yellow, and Eithley, cousin of the groom, dressed in yellow. Both were carnation headdresses.

Don Bristow of Ione, cousin of the groom, was best man and the brides were Wesley Marlatt and Ernest Burkenbine.

Mrs. J. O. Turner, at the organ, played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Fred Hoskins, who sang "Because" and "Wedding Prayer".

Baskets of white carnations and white stock were used about the church and in the basement where the reception was held.

Mrs. Samuel Schwarzin, sister-in-law of the bride, of Sheridan, Idaho, cut the cake following the reading of the first piece by the bride and groom. Pouring at the table were Mrs. Charles Knox and Mrs. Edmund Bristow, aunt of the groom. Miss Meredith Tomson was at the punch bowl. Eithley, sister of the groom, was at the punch bowl.

groom, had charge of the guest book and Miss Barbara Warren, the gift book.

Out of town guests were Mrs. M. R. Benoist, grandmother of the bride, of Klamath Falls; Mrs. Ida Grabill, Ione, grandmother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwarzin and sons, Mrs. Margaret Schwarzin and daughter of Newberg; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Benoist and son of Tigard; Mrs. Samuel Schwarzin and daughter Beth, Sheridan, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. C. Brenda Bengtson Bride Of Larry Mollahan At Eugene Ceremony

A nuptial Mass in St. Mary's Catholic church on Saturday, Dec. 29, married Miss Brenda Bengtson, daughter of Mrs. Loula Bengtson of Eugene and O. H. Bengtson of Medford, to Larry Owen Mollahan. Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Mollahan of Heppner are the bridegroom's parents. The Rev. Harold J. McKennett performed the 10:30 a. m. ceremony, using the double-ring rite.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly-type lace, made with standing collar and a ruffled and tiered skirt with back detail. She wore a short lace veil held by a pearl-trimmed tiara, and carried an arrangement of Eucharis lilies and stephanotis tied with satin ribbons. She was escorted by her father.

Miss Diana Getchell of Medford was maid of honor, wearing a ballerina-length gown of nylon chiffon in pale blue. She carried a nosegay of paper-white narcissus and gardenias, tied with yellow and white satin ribbons. She wore a floral headdress.

Other bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Sloan and Miss Leota Brown both of Eugene, both in dresses of light blue nylon and also carrying nosegays like that of the honor maid.

Flower girl was Hilda Bengtson, the bride's younger sister, who also wore a dress of light blue nylon chiffon.

John F. Mollahan of Heppner, brother of the bridegroom, was his best man. Ushers were James Nirehl and Brent Bengtson, the latter a brother of the bride.

Bouquets of white and yellow pom pom chrysanthemums were altar decorations for the wedding, and flowers also decorated the front pews of the church.

Following the church ceremony, a reception took place in the Persian Room of Eugene Hotel. The wedding cake was cut by two aunts of the bridegroom, Mrs. Eva Robinson of Pendleton and Mrs. Rose Garrett of Portland. Mrs. Donald McClure of Eugene, sister of the bridegroom, poured coffee and Miss Janice Tift of Eugene served punch. The guest book was in charge of Miss Sue Gray and Miss Jane Barton, both of Medford.

In the receiving line with the bride and groom were Mrs. O. Carter Boggs of Portland, the bride's godmother.

The young couple made a wedding trip to the coast, and will be at home in Eugene, where both are students, at 1857 Mill St. For traveling the bride wore a dress of white wool with powder blue coat and winter white hat, white gloves and other accessories in black patent leather.
