Mary Lea Ison and Duane L. Baker Wed At Milton-Freewater

The Milton-Freewater Christian church was the setting for holiday candlelight nuptials of Miss Mary Lea Ison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Ison of Milton-Freewater, and Duane Leroy Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker of Ione, Oregon, on Sunday, December 30 at 4 p. m.

The double-ring service was read by the Rev. Truman Robbins before an altar banked with baskets of white pom pom chrysanthemums. Preceding the ceremony Jack Williams sang "I Love You Truly" and during the ceremony "Wedding Prayer." He was accompanied by Mrs. Fred Etling on the organ who also played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of French lace and net over white satin. The fitted bodice of lace was accented by self-covered buttons and the scoop neckline was scalloped. She carried a sheaf of red roses and fern tied with white satin ribbon.

Her twin sister, Miss Barbara Ison, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Martine Baker, sister of the groom, Miss Carolyn Moeller of Forest Grove, and Mrs. Rolland Dibble. Their identical royal blue dresses were of crystalettes. They carried white fur muffs trimmed with holly and wore a band of the same fur in their hair.

The candlelighters, Miss Rita Larson of Clarkia, Idaho, and Mrs. Ronald Baker of Hermiston, sister-in-law of the groom, wore princess-style dresses of silver crystalette over taffeta.

The flower girl, Sharon Reynolds of Oregon City, niece of the bride, wore a dress identical to those of the bridesmaids and carried a white fur basket of petals with a sprig of holly on the side.

Ronald Baker, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Jerry Bristow of Ione, Ron Barendse and Bill Roff of Forest Grove, and Tom White of Portland. The ringbearer was Greg Shellenberger of Walla Walla, nephew of the bride.

At the reception in the church parlors Mrs. Frank Ritchey was in charge. The blue, white and silver theme was carried out in the decorations. The table, laid with lace cloth, was centered with white and blue chrysanthemums and evergreens, flanked by antique brass candleholders with crystal prisms and blue candles. The four-tier cake was topped with wedding bells and surrounded by blue and white chrysanthemums and fern.

After the bride and groom cut the first piece of cake it was then cut and served by the bride's sisters Mrs. K. L. Shellenberger of Walla Walla and Mrs. Vernon Reynolds of Oregon City, assisted by Mrs. Howard Cockburn and Mrs. Iva Jane West. Mrs. Charles Hoover of Pendleton, aunt of the groom, poured coffee and Mrs. Walter McGrew presided at the punch bowl with Mrs. Aaron Weis assisting. Mrs. Dolores Preas served the groom's cake. Mrs. Bill Roff was in charge of the guest book and Vernon Reynolds, brother-in-law of the bride, the gifts, assisted by Jean Snow.

When the couple left on a short wedding trip, Mrs. Baker was wearing a red wool two-piece dress and gunmetal leather coat with red accessories. She wore a red rose corsage.

The bride attended the University of Idaho and is now receptionist at the Forest Grove Medical Clinic. Her husband is a junior at Pacific University in Forest Grove where he is majoring in engineering.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ison wore a beige dress with matching hat and brown accessories. The groom's mother wore a turquoise dress with white accessories. Both wore rosebud corsages.

Among out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Henderson of
