Lex P-TA And Students Plan Sweetheart Ball

By Delpha Jones

The executive board of the Lexington P-TA held its regular meeting at the Cecil Jones home on Wednesday evening. The plans for the Sweetheart ball were discussed, which is a yearly function given jointly by the high school students and their parents. This is preceded by the athletic banquet at which time the athletic awards for the year are given. Committees were appointed at this time.

Thursday evening at 6:30 Charlene Jones entertained the high school committee for the sweetheart ball with a buffet supper. Those present were: Keith Peck, Denny Doherty, Pat Steagall, Maureen Groves, Dora Sue Davidson, and Hugo Leyva, and the hostess Charlene Jones. Later at 7:30 the committee of the P-TA met the students and discussed plans for the coming event. Those attending were: Lorene Ledbetter, Tess Hatfield, and Delpha Jones. Later in the evening several of the students dropped in and they enjoyed punch, pop corn and dancing.

Heppler High School SCOOP

By Judie Spaulding

Ed Groshens was chosen as Heppler nominee to the Oregon Youth Council in Salem. Each school sends one nominee's name to Baker to be considered as a delegate to the council from this district.

Boy and Girl of the month of January chosen on the basis of their good humor were announced last week at the Pep assembly. Jerry Dougherty and Marilyn Pettyjohn took these honors and were presented with a carnation corsage and boutonniere.

February's Boy and Girl of the month were Dean Connor and Francine Francis chosen in the eyes of the student body for outstanding school spirit. Announcement was made at a special assembly, February 12.

Students attending the Pacific Slope press conference in Seattle, February 22-24, are Meredith Thomson, Mary Stewart, Jim Morris, Judie Spaulding, Phyllis Quackenbush, Helen Graham-Hehisch staff, and Jay Sumner, Janice Beamer, from the Mustang.

Margaret Kirk, Hehisch advisor Madge Thomson and Roy Quackenbush will accompany the group.

The senior class of '57 chose their graduation announcements the first of the week. A student body meeting was held during 7th period on Tuesday.

The Pep club will sponsor the pep assembly this Friday and the dance after the Echo game on Saturday.
