

Boardman FFA High in Contest

By Mary Lee Marlow

The Boardman FFA class placed second in the shop skills contest of the Blue Mountain district held at Hermiston Saturday. The district consists of the following schools: Wy-East, The Dalles, Boardman, Heppner, Hermiston, Stanfield, Pendleton, McEwen and Mac-Hi. The Wy-East class took first place by a margin of only one point over the Boardman boys.

The following boys from Boardman were winners: Arcwelding, Larry Eades, first; acetylene Bill Thorpe, second; rafter cutting, Bill Thorpe, second; tool care, Jerry Peck, second; brazing, Bill Aardappel, third; oxy-acetylene cutting, Larry Eades, third.

The boys participated in these classes as part of their vo-ag program, to learn by doing. Ronald Black is their instructor.

Ed Skoubo returned home Saturday from Benecia, Calif., with an L-170 International two and a half yard dump truck for the Boardman Soil Conservation district, to be used both here and at Irrigon. The truck was purchased through war surplus.

Skoubo was accompanied home for the weekend by Roger Ca-wood, of Portland. Other weekend visitors at the Skoubo home were Mrs. Skoubo's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Luhrs and children Terry and Glenda, of Pendleton.

A meeting of Boardman potato growers was held Wednesday of last week at the home of Ralph Skoubo. Main speaker was Jack Ross, farm crop specialist from O. S. C., Corvallis. Dean Swan, weed specialist from the Pendleton experiment station was present, as was Nels Anderson, Morrow county extension agent, from Heppner. Other Boardman growers present were Henry Zivney, Ervin Flock, and Russell and Bob Miller. All potato diseases were discussed, including Blackleg, Ringrot, Mosaic, Curlyleaf and Rhizok. The importance of clean seed was brought out. All certified seed is tried first at OSC. If any includes Blackleg, or Ringrot, it is disqualified for use, and only one percent of Mosaic, Curlyleaf or Rhizok is allowed.

Mr. and Mrs. Zearl Gillespie were called to Moses Lake, Wash., Saturday by the sudden death of Gillespie's brother, Art Gillespie, who suffered a heart attack Friday. The funeral was held there Tuesday. Mrs. Claud Coats and Mrs. Glen Carpenter attended the funeral also.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Hugg are the parents of a daughter born Feb. 28 at the Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston. She has been named Pamela Joan. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Armin Hug, Boardman, and Gene Gurley, Irrigon. Great-grandparents are Mrs. May Miller, Portland; Mrs. Katie Bickford, La Grande; and Mrs. Jessie Barland, Canby. The baby weighed seven pounds, and seven and one-half ounces.

Gary King, La Grande, and Terry Webb, The Dalles, are visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George King.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Skoubo and sons Dick and Bobbie visited Skoubo's mother, Mrs. Anna Skoubo, at Pendleton Sunday.

The Sugar and Spice cooking class held their second meeting at the home of their leader, Mrs. William Garner, with Anita Garner assistant hostess. One new member was added to the group, Charlotte McKenzie. The next meeting will be March 7 at the home of Patti Partlow, at which time the right and wrong ways to set a table will be discussed and demonstrated.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ely and children Renee and Ricky, Moses Lake, Wash., were Saturday visitors at the home of Ely's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ely.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Allen and children Cammie and Bobbie, of Sunnyside, Wash., were weekend visitors at the home of Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen.

Mrs. John Baldino and daughter Gloria, Spokane, Wash., are visiting this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hayes, while Baldino is in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs were guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Orton in Milton-Freewater. Present also were the Briggs' son-in-law, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell and children Johnny and Jeanne, of Spokane, Wash. Mrs. Orton was hostess for a birthday dinner for Johnny and Jeanne Campbell.

Mrs. Florence Root went to Athena during the weekend to help her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Root, move to Wasco.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Blanche Jones were her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Zerba and children Dennis and Bobbie of Athena, and Mrs. Lucille Colvard of Walla Walla, Wash. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell of Hermiston and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Severance of Chelan, Wash.

Henry Gantenbein was in Portland on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kress visited relatives in Lewiston, Idaho, the first of last week, returning home Wednesday. Their daughter, Pat, who is employed there, returned home with them Thursday they went to Westfir to visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ball. Betty Olmstead, who is also employed at Lewiston, went to Mesa, Arizona, last week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Olmstead.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ely and daughter Eileen, and Dorothy Rash, went to Heppner Sunday to see Ely's father, H. O. Ely, of Ione, who is ill in Pioneer Memorial hospital. They report his condition a little improved.

Mrs. R. A. Eades visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Woolley, in Pasco, Wash., last week. While there she attended a talent show at which her granddaughter, Marcia Woolley, 13 year old eighth grade student, won the grand prize among about 40 contestants, singing, "I Dreamed." Marcia formerly attended school in Boardman.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marlow of Milton-Freewater visited at the home of Marlow's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marlow, Sunday. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Marlow of Irrigon.

Mrs. Duane Silverthorn and daughters Carol and Marcy of Aloha were weekend visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Skoubo. Mrs. Skoubo returned home with her after visiting the past two weeks at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Toiva Simila in Portland.

Mrs. Oscar Veelle, Sr., Estacada, is visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Stewart. Saturday visitors at the Stewart home were Mr. and Mrs. Don Sturgess and four children of Estacada. Oscar Veelle, Jr., returned home with them after visiting here the past week.

A new 4-H poultry and rabbit club has been organized with Mrs. Everett Daniels as leader. Nels Anderson, county extension agent from Heppner was present at the first meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. Daniels. Officers of the club are: Jackie Taylor, president; Leonard Bedford, vice president; Linda Daniels, secretary; Karen Anderson, song leader; Charlotte McKenzie, reporter. Other members are Sandra Thorpe, Tim Malone, Richard Watts, Keith Gronquist and Dennis Anderson. The group will meet every other week on Monday, the next meeting to be held March 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill have been in Fresno, Calif., the past two weeks visiting at the home of Mrs. Tannehill's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cooley.

A half inch of rain fell here Saturday and Saturday night. The sun shone all day Sunday, but Monday was cloudy and some more rain fell that night.

PONY KICKS

Mrs. Boulden's Room
Hexagonal designs are being made during arithmetic class. Reports are being given during social studies. Bob Irbay has given one on New Zealand.

"Signs of Spring" is the theme for picture making this week.

Mrs. Erwin's Sixth Grade
Soil conservation is the subject of study for these sixth grade students. Objective studying has taught them what the earth's surface is made of, and how conditions for change take place. Pictures showing ways to save the soil from washing or blowing away were drawn. They have also learned about the worst dust storm our nation has borne and the causes of it. This was the "Black Duster" of the great plains.

Our Study of Weather
Submitted by Ann Jones

We have just finished studying a unit on weather. We have studied weather maps and we have made pictures of the different clouds. They are called cumulus, stratus, cirrus, and mackerel. We also have some weather charts.

The West Indies
Submitted by Carol Tholberg

The students of our class are studying the West Indies. Charts and maps portraying them have been made. On our charts we marked the island, the capital of it, the nationality of the people and what products the islands and who they belong to. We are going to cut stencils of the West Indies islands and with textile paints make a map on muslin.

Mrs. Kelly's Fourth Grade
Jean Stockard departed with her parents Friday afternoon, March 1, en route to Los Angeles. Jean was very much excited about the trip as it was taken in order to bring back the little Korean boy which they have adopted.

The class has just finished the unit about the Navahos and have drawn some chalk pictures about the story. For English, paragraphs were written to go with each picture.

Mrs. Albert's Fourth Grade
This fourth grade English has organized a Good English Club. The room is divided into two groups, the leaders being the president and vice president. A Good English Habit booklet in which rules will be written is being made.

The science class is planting seeds and bulbs. Some pumpkin seeds and Narcissus bulbs have been planted.

Mrs. Hoskins' Room
Mrs. Hoskins' class has admitted a new boy by the name of Jimmy Chinn. Welcome, Jimmy!

Mrs. Bechdolt's Third Grade
The students of this room wish to welcome Gary Imus recently of Seattle. They are happy to have him with them.

Mrs. Laird's Second Grade
The children of this room have submitted some original poems of their own to this paper. Here are a few:

The Sun glows
As the wind blows.
By Marsha
The sun is bright;
The water is light.
By Lee

I know a little bunny
Who has some honey.
By Ricky

There was a little mill
That stood on a hill.
