Blood Typing Drive Attracts About 40 at Ione

By Echo Palmateer
Around 40 persons had their blood typed at the Masonic hall Thursday evening. A lab technician from the Pioneer Memorial hospital typed the blood. This will be on record at the hospital and when blood is needed at the hospital they will know the type needed and who can supply it. Barbara Warren of Heppner assisted and Walter Dobyns and James Barnett of Ione had charge.

G. A. Petteys and Joel Engleman returned home from the Pioneer Memorial hospital Tuesday of last week.

New books added to the Ione Public library are: Annapolis, by Engeman; This Hallowed Ground, by Catton; A Bear is a Bear, by Hogan; The Story of Caves, by Sterling; and A City for Jean, by Wells.

The Eastern Star social club had a very successful card party at the Masonic hall Saturday evening of last week. Pinochle and bridge were played. Those winning prizes in pinochle were Mrs. Floyd Bailey and Sam Esteb, high; and Mrs. Hershall Townsend and W. E. Melena, low. In bridge, Mrs. Mary Swanson and E. R. Lundell, high and Herbert Ekstrom and Mrs. Cleo Drake, low. Mrs. Roy Lueallen received the door prize. Mrs. Walter Dobyns had charge of the refreshments and Mrs. Charles O'Connor had charge of the cards.

Return From Islands
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Heliker, Mrs. Delbert Emert and daughter, Mary, Ann Belle Coleman, Roy and Arthur Lindstrom and Rollo Crawford returned home from the Hawaiian Islands Tuesday of last week. They reported a wonderful trip. They arrived in the islands Saturday Feb. 16. The following Sunday they attended the oldest church there. The church is made of coral. That afternoon they attended the Queen's Surf's Luau feast. At this feast 300 pound hogs were barbecued and served to over 500 people. Among other things visited on the island Oahu were the Mormon church which is second largest west of Utah, a Buddhist church, a yacht ride into Pearl Harbor and saw the damage done in 1941, attended the Hawaii Calls program where Mr. Heliker was introduced as a Farm Bureau leader. They visited the Punch Bowl cemetery where the Pacific was dead and buried. This cemetery is an old crater filled with soil and sand. They also visited the Foster Botanical Gardens, an orchid garden, and the sugar cane and pineapple plantations.

Mr. and Mrs. Heliker took a trip to the Island of Hawaii where they saw the volcanoes. They all enjoyed swimming.

Mrs. Robert Jepsen entertained the bridge club at her home Friday evening of last week. Those receiving prizes were Mrs. Gene Hall, high; Mrs. Walter Corley, 2nd high and Mrs. David McLeod, low.

At a Community church meeting Sunday it was voted to build a new parsonage on property on Main street, just west of the Community church.

Patients in the Pioneer Memorial hospital last week were Mildred Seehafer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Seehafer, who underwent an appendectomy and David Hatfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hatfield, who had a tonsillectomy.

Ray Barnett is painting his house on Second street.

The Victor Rietmanns are erecting a small greenhouse on their property on Second street.
