

Lexington News

By Delpha Jones

On Sunday the congregation of the Lexington Christian and Congregational Sunday school held a potluck dinner in the dining room of the church. There were about 53 present. Preceding the dinner Rev. Rodney Northrup brother of Norman Northrup delivered the message. Mr. Northrup is a missionary in Mexico and has been spending a month with his mother in Caldwell who has been ill. After the dinner he showed slides concerning the mission and school in Mexico and answered all questions put before him.

On Friday the homeloving class from the Lexington high school went to Hepner where Mr. Case of the Case Furniture showed the girls types of furniture construction. The girls spent nearly 2 hours in the store with Mr. Case discussing construction and finishes of bedroom suites, points to consider when purchasing mattresses and upholstered pieces, and the difference in carpets. Those attending with Mrs. Coval, their instructor were Maureen Groves, Inez O'Neal, and Pat and Barbara Steagall.

The Mother's Club met at the home of Mrs. Dean Hunt with the topic "Let's get rid of television" given by Lorine Ledbetter. Those attending were Mesdames John Ledbetter, Norman Nelson, Ken Peck, Harold Beach, Bob Mathews, and Serg Coval and the hostess Mrs. Hunt.

Mrs. E. E. Peck entertained with a birthday dinner honoring her son George's birthday on Monday night. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Gar Leyva, Mr. and Mrs. Armin Whilom, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones and children Charlene and Kenny and Mr. and Mrs. Peck and children Kay, Keith, Joyce and the honored George.

Grapefruit Starts Day Right

With all the emphasis on winter health and better breakfasts, it's a wise woman who sets her table for the first meal of the day with the proper components for good health and energy. And every woman knows that nothing has a cleaner, wake-up taste first thing than a juicy half Florida grapefruit.

Florida grapefruit is right at the peak of its goodness and flavor now. You'll find both seeded and seedless, white and pink grapefruit in your markets. Fix them properly, separating each section from the dividing membranes, and serve with various toppings every day while they're so good. For they're so good for you! Low in calories, high in vitamin C, they're your ablesst ally whether you're fighting the battle of the bulge or just plain colds.

Besides your daily citrus, a well-balanced breakfast should include eggs in some form (here's an omelet, a pleasant change and easy too), sausage or bacon or ham; toast and butter, and of course, milk. Remember that adults need milk just as children do.

Rodney Northrup left Monday on his return trip to Mexico after a visit with his brother and family. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Northrup.

Hermiston visitors on Tuesday were Mrs. E. E. McFadden and daughter Inez, Mrs. Gladys Young and daughter Joan, Mrs. E. E. Peck and son George, and Mrs. June Cooper and Mrs. C. C. Jones.

Let's not forget Grange which is the second Saturday of each month.

Let's not forget Holly Rebekah lodge which is the first and third Thursday of each month.

Lexington P-TA will meet next Tuesday in the school auditorium with the youth organizations of the town giving the program. Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria by the hospitality committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson attended the county O. E. A. dinner in Hepner on Monday night. Mr. Henderson is a member of the county 5 man board.

The Lexington high school has nominated the following girls to run for queen of the sweetheart ball which will be given on Mar. 23. These girls are chosen by popular vote of the high school and townspeople. Jars are set out in various places and each cent dropped in the individual's jar counts as one vote. Let us all turn out and vote for a queen, one of these three girls, Joan Patrick, age 16, daughter of Mrs. Gladys Young; Pat Steagall, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall; and Beverley Baker, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Baker.

On Monday Miss Marilyn Bradshaw, sister of Beverly Bradshaw of Hepner spoke at the high school on her trip to Scotland as an exchange student. Another speaker at the local school recently has been Jack Summer of Hepner on the United Nations Pilgrimage sponsored by the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges. It was announced that several of the students are trying out for this.

4-H CLUB NEWS

HOOF AND HORN LIVESTOCK CLUB

The Hoof and Horn Livestock Club held a field day on Saturday, February 16th. The members visited the Anderson and George sheep where they docked lambs, tagged ewes and clipped for wool blindness.

On Thursday, February 28th, Connie and Jerry Anderson, Kit and David George, with the leader, N. C. Anderson, presented the weekly program for Soroptimist International of Hepner. They told of their projects and the duties of their officers and showed film strips on parliamentary procedure. This was their first activity in connection with National 4-H Club Week.

Also in celebration of National 4-H Club Week, the Hoof and Horn members combined with the Rhea Creek and Butter Creek clubs in preparing a Hepner Community 4-H Club Exhibit in the window of the Red and White store.

IONE JOLLY CHEFS

The Ione Jolly Chefs met February 27 after school at Dianna Pettyjohn's home.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Dianna Pettyjohn. The group decided to have a window display for National 4-H Club Week. All the girls volunteered to bring food for exhibition.

The Cooking III girls made rice delight. Dianna made a cake and Marilyn demonstrated making a seven minute icing. The next meeting will be March 9 at Sandra Eubanks home.

Dianna and her mother served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

FUR AND FEATHER CLUB

The Lexington Fur and Feather club met at the home of Kenny Jones on Saturday. The leaders Mrs. B. J. Doherty and Mrs. Wardwell were both present as were all members but one. This was a most interesting meeting with several talks, among them a talk on rabbit markets by Danny Wardwell. Martha Doherty talked on Rhode Island chickens and Billy Klinger about New Hampshire, Tony Doherty about the care of baby rabbits and Kenny Jones on the use of infra-red light bulbs in the brooding of baby chicks. Plans were made for their part in the P-TA program on Tuesday night. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jones.

Kenny Jones, reporter.

THE MERRY TAILORS

We, The Merry Tailors, 4-H sewing class held our March 1 meeting at the home of Frances McLeod with our leader, Mrs. Veda Brenner. We made plans for our window display, which will be in Bristow's store window to coincide with National 4-H Club Week. We started making our head scarf, which is our next clothing project. For refreshments we had doughnuts and pop served by Frances McLeod and Arleta McCabe. Our next meeting will be at the O'Connor home on March 15.

Cheryl Lundell, news reporter

BUTTER AND HINTON CREEK LIVESTOCK CLUB

The Butter and Hinton Creek Livestock 4-H club held our third meeting of the year at Ebb Hughes'.

At the meeting Merlin Hughes and Taggy Greenup gave reports on registering Herefords and sheep. For our next meeting we are supposed to learn the different parts of pigs, sheep and calves.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served. Larry Monagle, reporter

THE TRAIL BLAZERS

The Hepner Trail Blazers went to Pendleton Thursday, Feb. 21 in place of our regular meeting. We attended a lecture by Sam Campbell entitled An Alaskan Cruise.

Mr. Campbell is a naturalist and he also writes animal stories. The Trail Blazers had an opportunity to talk and shake hands with Mr. Campbell.

Those attending were Sandra and Dennis Campbell, John and Jimmie Cason, Jo Ann and Maria Robison, Omer Huston, Jim Reed, Billy Wagner and Dr. and Mrs. Wagner. Jo Ann Robison, scribe
