The Lexington P-TA executive board met at the Don Hatfield home on Wednesday night. Much business was taken care of at this time, which consisted of a discussion on a P-TA formal, for the members and also talk about the "Sweetheart Ball" and athletic banquet to be held on March 23. A food sale for St. Patrick's day was discussed and it was decided that the money taken in from this would be used to purchase turkeys for the athletic banquet. A nominating committee was elected at this time for the election of officers for the coming year. This was taken care of at this time, due to the change in date of the P-TA convention in Pendleton in April. This committee was Delpha Jones, chairman, Em Peck, and Mrs. Evonne Lovgren. Refreshments were served the following: Mrs. Mary Ann Barclay, Mrs. Bob Davidson, Mrs. Barbara Cutsforth, Mrs. Lorene Ledbetter, Mrs. Bill Parsons, Mrs. Delpha Jones and the hostess Mrs. Hatfield and a guest Don Hatfield.

P-TA met at the school auditorium on Tuesday night with a fine program which consisted of the youth organizations of the community taking part. The Cub scouts took part, and gave the scout law, led in the flag salute, and the singing of America. At this time the Cub Master, Don Hatfield presented 3 graduation certificates from Cub scouts to Lee Padberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Padberg, Donnie Van Winkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Van Winkle, and Sonny McFadden, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McFadden. These boys were accepted into the Boy Scouts by Bob Mathews who took the place of the Scout Master Franklin Miles who was unable to be present.

The Fur and Feathers club gave a most instructive program which consisted of the proper way to hold a business meeting. This was beautifully done with each giving their breed of chicken or rabbit for roll call. Several reports were read and Dale Adlard showed the proper way to handle a rabbit and had a rabbit with him to demonstrate with. The club leaders Mrs. B. J. Doherty and Mrs. Wardwell were also present.

Following this a business meeting was held with the report of the nominating committee read, and an unanimous ballot being cast for the following: Mrs. Barbara Cutsforth, pres., Mrs. Jim Bloodsworth, vice pres., Lorene Ledbetter as secretary and Jo Irvin as treasurer. A report on the hot lunch fund and the use of tickets was given by Dale Waddill. The report on the legislature on school bills was given by O. W. Cutsforth, and the change of the meeting date was discussed as the next meeting falls during the P-TA convention in Pendleton. It was decided to leave this to the judgment of the executive board. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria by the hospitality committee.

Mr. Bill Steagall returned home from Pioneer Memorial hospital this week where he underwent a tonsilectomy.

Miss Marilyn Parrish, sister of Mrs. Norman Northrup and a friend Miss Jean Lloyd visited at the Northrup home this week.

Norman Northrup accompanied by the following men attended 90 and 9 men's meeting and dinner in Walla Walla on Friday night, Don Hatfield, W. E. McMillan, Franklin Messenger, Carl Marquardt.

Miss Dona Barnett, Mrs. Trina Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller have returned from Portland where they spent several days.

Mrs. A. F. Majeske entertained the Three Link club with an all day meeting at her home on Wednesday. Part of the time was spent in finishing a quilt and planning the program of work for the coming year. Those present were: Mrs. W. E. McMillan, Mrs. Art Keene, Mrs. Cora Warner and her guests for the day, Mrs. Earl Eskelson and daughter Beulah Hynd of Cecil.

Mrs. Emma Breshears and her granddaughters Pat and Barbara Steagall were Walla Walla visitors on Thursday of last week.

Let's don't forget to vote for the Queen of the "Sweetheart Ball" as the votes are to be picked up and counted on Friday afternoon, so if you've not voted let's do so soon.

The Women's Fellowship group of the church held their meeting on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. E. McMillan filling the chairman's chair in her absence. The nominating committee gave their report and the election of officers will be held at the next meeting. Group singing was enjoyed led by Faye Munkers accompanied by Betty Marquardt.

Mr. Soward of Heppner gave a most interesting talk on his experience in the Hawaiian Islands where he was stationed as chaplain. Later refreshments were served by the hospitality committee, Mrs. Bill Nichols and Mrs. E. Peck.

It was announced that a cleanup day will be held April 16 starting at 10 a. m. and will include a sack lunch at noon with the regular meeting held in the afternoon in the primary rooms of the church. Let's all come out to these meetings and fellowship with the group. The nominating committee were Miss Dona Barnett, chairman, Florence McMillan and Burl Northrup.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Burnside of Spray visited relatives in Lexington on Sunday and with a brother of Mrs. Burnside, Buster Shown who is a patient in Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Serge Coval and family have moved into the Buster Shown house from the Don Campbell house.

Mrs. George Steagall is reported on the sick list.
