Civic League Style Show Huge Success

The Heppner Civic League met Monday evening at the Episcopal parish house.

It was reported that the style show was a success, netting the League $78.25, the money to be used in financing the kindergarten. Another project to finance the kindergarten is the annual rummage sale to be held May 3 and 4 at the Empire Machinery Co. starting at 8:00 a. m.

Rummage may be left at Jack's Chevron station in Heppner by persons from out of town wishing to donate or at Gene's Chevron station in Lexington.

The Civic League will put on the stag dinner for the Elks tonight (Thursday) with Mrs. Laverne Van Marter acting as the chairman.

McKinney-Addy Wedding Sunday Event in Hermiston

By Echo Palmateer

Miss Jeanne Sarah Addy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Addy of Hermiston, became the bride of Malcolm McKinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McKinney of Ione, Sunday, April 14 at the First Methodist church in Hermiston. The Rev. A. E. Davis officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white floor length dress of net over imported lace with fitted bodice of lace, with draped neckline studded with rhinestones and full net skirt and short train of lace. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a tiara and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bridesmaids were Judy O'Grady, Jean Johnson, Donna Seimne and Sylvia Quiring. They all wore lavender crystaletta ballerina length princess style dresses and carried lavender stock. Jeanette Addy was maid of honor for her sister and was dressed identical to the bridesmaids, in a deeper shade of lavender and she carried deep lavender stock.

Leland McKinney, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Jerald Rea of Ione, Wallace Gray of Seattle, Keith Barnett of Grass Valley, a cousin of the groom and Keith Green of Walla Walla.

The candlelighters were Beverly McKinney of Salem, cousin of the groom and Dorothy Coombs. The ring bearers were Marvin and Denny Bulger.

Miss Marilyn Jack sang True Love, Because and the Lord's Prayer as the couple knelt at the altar.

The church was decorated with white and lavender stock and these colors were used throughout the decorations.

The mother of the bride wore blue lace with white accessories and a white rosebud corsage. The mother of the groom wore green satin with champagne accessories and a cream rosebud corsage.

At the reception following the ceremony, after the bride and groom cut the first piece of the three tiered cake decorated with white and lavender roses, it was served from a table with a white cloth by Mrs. Willard Barrett, Grass Valley, aunt of the groom and Mrs. Don Sanders, Hermiston.

Pouring from a table covered with a white cloth and centered with white carnations, was Mrs. Allie Ruggles, Grass Valley, grandmother of the groom. Another grandmother of the groom, Mrs. Fred Cole, presided at the punch bowl and she also baked the groom's cake. Grace McCabe was in charge of the guest book.

The bride graduated from Hermiston high school and has been employed in the Multnomah county library in Portland. The groom is a graduate of Ione high school and is engaged in farming near Wasco.

Following a two weeks honeymoon in California and Nevada they will be at their new home near Wasco.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Lorena Cauthers, Moro, great-grandmother of the groom; Mrs. Allie Ruggles, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Ruggles and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Barnett and son, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Alley and daughter, all of Grass Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alley, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Alley, all of Wasco; Mr. and Mrs. William Huck, Rufus; Mr. and Mrs. William McKinney and daughter, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ruggles, Stayton; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ruggles and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruggles, Heppner. There were many friends present from Lexington and Ione. The parents of the groom en-
