HEPPNER

chosen to pace the 1957 Indianapolis classic

Some people imagine they can get a better deal on buying a new car if they wait until late in the year. But—they overlook the obvious fact that their trade-in car is worth less. Also, that they're missing half the fun of owning a current model.

So why wait? Right now, your Mercury dealer has more stock on hand than he will have anytime this year—which means he can operate on a high volume, low margin basis. This, plus your higher trade-in, means you can own a Mercury/57 for less net money now. Drive in today, and drive home in a brand new Mercury/57.

Top value in its field! Contrast Mercury/57 with any car in its price class, like Car "B" or Car "O." Mercury is bigger, inside and out, based on the largest size increase in the industry. Only Mercury offers you a full choice of engines. Only Mercury adds so many exclusive, functional features: Keyboard Control, Floating Ride, Thermo-matic Carburetor, optional dual headlights, many others. Comparison, point-for-point, will prove that Mercury/57 is the best buy of all medium-priced cars.
