Boardman Club Gives Program On Fabric Use

"New Dimensions", a thrilling new Do-It-With-Fabrics color slide program, sponsored by the local Tillicum club, was presented at the grange hall last Thursday evening. Mrs. William Garner showed the slides, and the commentary was by Mrs. Ronald Black. There were 55 color slides in the program, which included 40 room settings and numerous window treatments.

Among the variety of fabrics shown were Fortisan rayon printed sheers, Celaperm acetate tafetas in rich colors, antique satins sturdy upholstery fabrics, and many deeply textured fabrics of "New Dimensions" in vivid and pastel shades to please all tastes and budgets.

The program actually showed in color slides how to make Decorative Fabric screens, how to apply fabric to walls, how to make fabric bordered walls, how to plan unique milk glass shelves; also how to beautify your windows inside and out when you do-it-yourself-with-fabrics of New Dimensions for the home.

The Celanese dress length given as a door prize was won by Mrs. Cecil Hamilton.

The P-TA of Boardman school entertained the high school girls with a trip to Portland last Friday to see the show "The Ten Commandments". In the group were Mrs. Freda Thayer, Mrs. Lowell Shattuck, Mrs. Clifford Jones and daughter Rosina, and Maxine Sicard, Barbara Gantenbein, Donna Watts, Edna Hoffman, Rosemary Deulen and Loriel Hamilton. Sharon Jones and Sandra Thorpe found the most eggs in the Easter egg hunt at the school grounds last Saturday.

Wright of Heppner. Stevie Mounts will stay for two week's visit with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Majeske.
