Farewell Given Lexington Family

By Delpha Jones

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson were delightfully surprised one night last week when several of their friends dropped in with cake and coffee for a "farewell" party for them as they have moved to Chewelah, Washington. The evening was spent in visiting, and refreshments were served later to the following: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McFadden and son Sonny, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Breeding, Mr. and Mrs. George Steagall, George Irvin, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones and children Kenny and Charlene.

Three Links club met at the home of Mrs. June Cooper on Wednesday. At this time a committee of LaVerne Henderson and Delpha Jones was appointed to purchase fancy work for the club to do. Refreshments were served to Jo Irvin, Florence McMillan, Annie Keene, Delpha Jones and LaVerne Henderson and the hostess June Cooper.

W. T. Schoonover and son Stanley and Maurice Forman of Fontana, California were visitors in Lexington Sunday night where Mr. Schoonover attended the Baccalaureate exercises for his son Raymond. He has gone to Portland where he will spend several days visiting relatives before returning to California. Stanley remained here for a visit with his mother, Mrs. June Cooper and relatives.

The Lexington P-TA sponsored the dinner given at the Elks on Thursday night for men's night. Those working on the committee were Berniece Wihlon, Em Peck, Dimple Munkers, Bertha Hunt, Otillia Hunt, Delpha Jones and the following high school girls who served, Rosetta Laney, Maureen Groves, Dora Sue Davidson, Charlene Jones and Eileen Padberg.

Pfc. Jim Laney of Camp Pendleton has been visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. O. Laney. Mrs. O. Laney returned last week from New Mexico where she was called by the death of her mother. Mr. Laney's mother returned with her to Lexington for an extended visit.

The Lexington P-TA met in the school auditorium last Tuesday. After the business meeting called to order, the new officers of the P-TA were installed by the installing officer Ed Dick of Heppner. Those installed were: Barbara Cutsforth, pres.; LaVonne Bloodworth, vice pres.; Lorene Ledbetter, sec.; and Jo Irvin, treas. Following this the group was entertained by Leonard Munkers and Don Hatfield who sang a duet accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Carmichael; E. E. Peck and Gar Leyva then gave a clever pantomime of a couple of singing numbers. Last on the program was a style show given by the men of the P-TA with Bob Mathews acting as master of ceremonies. Those modeling were Dale Gardiner, Bill Parsons, Orville Cutsforth, Don Hatfield, Lyle Cox, Roy Martin, George Irvin, John Ledbetter, Leonard Munkers and Cecil Jones. Refreshments were served in the school cafeteria.

Wilbur Steagall returned to his home last week after a stay in St. Anthony's hospital where he underwent surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mathews motored to Springfield over the weekend taking George Hermann and Dexter Miles, who participated in the track meet there, with George bringing home a 5th place in the discus throw and Dexter a 6th in the pole vault. Vern Nolan who also motored down with them visited his sister, Miss Phyllis Nolan who is attending N. C. C.

Mrs. W. E. McMillan and Mrs. A. F. Mjeske are attending the Rebekah convention in Bend.
