ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH SCENE OF BLEVINS-GONTY WEDDING SATURDAY

St. Patrick's Catholic church was the scene Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. of the wedding of Miss Eleanor Virginia Gonty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gonty, to Terry D. Blevins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blevins of Superior, Montana. Rev. P. J. Gaire officiated.

Mr. Gonty gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white lace ballerina length dress over white taffeta, with waist length veil of white net held in place by a tiara of tiny seed pearls. White roses with white satin streamers caught with tiny bows topped her white prayer book.

Miss Shirley Kononen, maid of honor, wore a pink ballerina length formal with white accessories and carried a nosegay of pink and white roses. The bridesmaids, dressed like the honor attendant, were Miss Joan Patrick of Lexington and Miss Janet Keithley.

Raymond Gonty, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Al Parents and Walter Speer.

Gloria Aylesworth and Verla Herschel, nieces of the groom were dressed in identical dresses of pink and white organdy with matching hats and carried miniature nosegays of pink and white roses. The ring-bearer was Danny Aylesworth, nephew of the groom.

The mother of the groom wore a blue gown with white accessories. The mother of the bride wore grey lace over pink taffeta with white and orchid accessories and each wore a pink rose corsage.

The pink and white color scheme was carried out in pink peonies, white gladiolas, and pink and white snapdragons in tall tapered holders on either side of the altar and arrangements on the altar.

The same color scheme was used at the reception held in the church parlors following the ceremony. Ecru lace covered the table which held the white three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature nosegay and surrounded at the base by pink and white roses and carnations. Mrs. Richard Peck was in charge of the gift table. Mrs. Floyd E. Adams presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Ruth Marlatt, great-aunt of the bride, at the coffee table and Mrs. Donald Aylesworth, sister of the groom, at the tea service. Mrs. Tom Marlatt, great-aunt of the bride, completed cutting of the cake after the bride and groom cut the first piece. Miss Meredith Thomson, a classmate of the bride was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Paul Koenig, Mrs. William Doherty and Mrs. Max Barely arranged the reception. Others assisting were Mrs. Jos. B. Hughes, Mrs. Tom Walker, Mrs. William Cunningham and Mrs. Gertrude Applegate.

The bride chose as her going away costume a light blue-grey wool suit with wedgewood blue accessories. The young couple will be at home in Milton-Free-water where the groom is in business.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Frank Blevins of Superior, Montana; Mr. and Mrs. David Aylesworth and family of Seattle, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parsegian of Willits, California; Walter Speer of West Slope.
