

S. I. Stratton, 87, Former Teacher Here, Dies at Lyle, Wn.

Funeral services were held at Hood River May 24 for Solomon Isaac Stratton, 87, a teacher and farmer in the Lyle, Wn., area since 1910.

Mr. Stratton was born in Clinton county, Missouri, Nov. 20, 1869 and came to Oregon when he was 13 years old. He worked on the railroad at Heppner in the 1890s, and after graduating from Monmouth College in 1897 came back to Heppner where he taught school and served as Morrow county school superintendent in 1903 and 1904.

He is survived by his widow who now resides at North Bonneville sanitarium, and two sons both living in Washington. Burial was in a Lyle, Wn., cemetery.

CIVIL DEFENSE EVACUATION would look like this with carefully controlled traffic moving one-way outbound from a threatened target city at a rate of up to 1,200 autos per hour per lane, except that cars would be carrying more people. All access to major surface streets would be controlled, traffic on cross streets banned. Reports indicate that some 32 million persons could be evacuated from 185 target areas in 1 1/2 hours by using this system. (Cameramen, Inc., Photo by Berkeley Payne)
