CHERRY GRAY BECOMES BRIDE OF GEORGE HERMANN ON SATURDAY

By Delpha Jones

The Hope Lutheran church was the scene of a 2 p.m. ceremony Saturday, June 16, when Miss Cherry Gray, daughter of Mrs. Nita Gray of Ukiah and Carl Gray of Idaho, and George E. Hermann, son of Mrs. Alex Hunt of Lexington, were united in marriage. Rev. Merlin Zier performed the double ring ceremony.

Baskets of painted daisies and mock orange tied with white satin ribbon bows, were at either side of the altar.

Escorted by Dean Hunt, the bride was lovely in a white lace and satin gown with lace over satin bodice and tulle skirt, with insets of lace flowers. She wore a veil caught on either side, cascading to the waist in the back. She carried a white satin Bible with a cascade of white stephanotis and baby red roses.

Mrs. C. C. Carmichael played the pre-nuptial music and accompanied Vic Kreimeyer, who sang, "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Mrs. Dean Hunt, matron of honor, wore pink with a white carnation nosegay and matching ribbons. Bridesmaids were Miss Judy Smith of Hermiston and Miss Anna Jepsen of Ione and they both carried white carnation nosegays.

Jeanette Ledbetter and Jeanne Hunt were junior bridesmaids and Tim Smith, nephew of the groom, was ringbearer with June Ledbetter as flower girl.

Johnnie Ledbetter was best man and ushers were Wallis Gray, brother of the bride, and Don Castee, Larry Fetsch was assistant usher.

Proceeding the ceremony the candles were lit by Bobby Fetsch and Cheryl Hartman.

The reception was held in the dining room of the church and the three-tiered cake, topped with pink wedding bells and white ribbons, was served from a linen covered table with a center arrangement of mock orange and pink sweet williams.

Mrs. Lillian Smith of Hermiston, sister of the groom, served the cake and pouring were Mrs. E. E. McFadden and Mrs. Jim Bloodsworth. Mrs. Lorene Ledbetter was at the punch bowl, which was on an adjoining table with a ring of mock orange and pink snapdragons around the bowl.

Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Eldon Padberg and Mrs. Roger Campbell.

Miss Joan Patrick was in charge of the guest book and Inez O'Neal the gifts. The groom's mother wore copper lace with a yellow and brown orchid and the bride's mother wore blue lace with a pink carnation corsage.

After a short wedding trip the young couple will be at home in Lexington where they have purchased a home and where he is employed. Mrs. Hermann is employed in Heppner at the R.E.A. office. They are both graduates of Lexington high school.
