

90 Enroll in Vacation Bible School at Boardman

By Mary Lou Marlow

The Daily Vacation Bible school of Community church finished its two weeks by presenting a program Friday night with Miss Zelma Cowan in charge. Total enrollment was 90, with an average attendance of 71. The school voted to give its offering this year to the church to be used for painting the outside of the building. Handwork of the pupils was displayed following the program.

Mrs. Evangeline McNeill and daughters of Cannon Beach Bible conference, and Lanson Ross, youth speaker, were overnight visitors in Boardman Sunday. Ross was guest speaker at Community church.

A truck and trailer owned by Hubbard Lumber Co. of Caldwell, Idaho, loaded with wheat, was crowded off the road into the ditch on highway 30 at Boardman last Thursday afternoon. A car driven by Eugene Sheppard, about 21, from Twin Falls, Idaho, started to turn off the highway onto the service road, and turned into the side of the truck. The truck was badly damaged and wheat was spilled all over the road and in the irrigating ditch. The truck driver, Roy Draper, was uninjured, as was his companion Charles Wolfe. Sheppard and another unidentified youth, were on their way to Vancouver, Wash. The truck was going to Portland.

Mrs. Claud Coats, Mrs. Florence Root, Mr. and Mrs. Zearl Gillespie and Mrs. Golda Cox of Tacoma, all left last Friday for Riverside, Calif., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barlow. They will attend the wedding of Miss Carmel Darlene Barlow and Mr. David Pinkston at the Magnolia Avenue Baptist church in Riverside, June 22.
