

32 County 4-H Club Members Return From Summer School

Thirty-two tired but happy 4-H club members returned to Morrow county Friday after a ten-day stay at Oregon State college attending 4-H summer school. The club members represented Morrow county, along with over 1800 boys and girls who spent from June 11 to 21 attending classes, assemblies, leadership workshops and recreation events. The boys and girls were housed in sororities, fraternities and dormitories in organized living groups.

Of the delegation 11 were boys and 21 were girls. The girls were housed in Waldo hall and Pi Kappa Phi, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Gamma, and Alpha Omicron Pi Sororities. The boys were housed at Phi Delta Theta and Heckart lodge. Officers of these living groups were: Karen Rae Lundell, president of Alpha Delta Pi; Billy Monagle served as chaplain in Heckart lodge and Marilyn Morgan was social chairman of Pi Kappa Phi. Those 4-H members who took part in the various activities on the campus were: Shirley Nash, Connie Anderson and Roger Doherty in the candlelighting ceremony the last evening of summer school; Theresa Hill, Mardine Baker, style revue; Celia Boulden, Carol Anne Anderson, Mardine Baker and Russell Dolven participated in leadership workshop classes; Celia Boulden, Carol Anne Anderson, Mardine Baker participated in the craft center to learn crafts for help at 4-H summer camp, while Fay

Kenny modelled for a picture for next year's 4-H annual. Karen Lundell was the only Morrow county member to be selected to perform on talent night. Talent night is an evening program put on by top 4-H members who were selected by an interview and try-out.

Classes which were held each morning were varied and numbered approximately 100 different subjects. Among the classes were such titles as: air defense, tractor demonstrations, budding and grafting, grow your fish, brooding chicks, light can be useful, mounting plants, put that fire out, and many, many others.

4-H club members who were delegates from Morrow county were: Chloe McQuaw, Kurt Gantenbein and Richard Watts, Boardman; Theresa Hill and Fay Kenny, Irrigon; Sheryl Harris, Libby Van Schoiack, Mary Slocum, Connie Anderson, Carole Anne Anderson, Celia Boulden, Shirley Nash, Roger Doherty, Jerry Anderson, Billy Monagle and Dennis Doherty, Heppner; Marilyn Morgan, Jean Martin, Lona White, Jo Ann Turner, Brenda Townsend, Linda Heimbigner, Karen Lundell, Linda Hamms, Mardine Baker, Grace McCabe, Kenneth Smouse, Ione; Carol Ann Palmer, Kenneth Nelson, Joe Palmer, Tom Martin and Russell Dolven, Lexington.

Contributions in the form of scholarships from business, organizations and people made the trip possible for these 4-H members.

Pontiac, Buick to Handle Small Cars

General Motors Corporation last week announced that it plans to begin selling its English Vauxhall Victor and German Opel Rekord cars in the United States in September.

Pontiac Motor division will handle the distribution of the Vauxhall and the Buick Motor division the Opel line. They will be handled in the North Atlantic and Pacific Coast areas only.

The Vauxhall is a four cylinder four door sedan with a 98 inch wheelbase. The biggest attraction is expected to be its low price and high gas mileage.

Traffic Accidents Down in Oregon

Traffic accidents and injuries so far this year appear to be running slightly below 1956, even though the death count for Oregon remains virtually the same.

A release from the Department of Motor Vehicle's traffic safety division shows 19,099 traffic accidents were reported to the state through the end of April. This compares with 22,222 accidents during the same period a year ago.

About 500 fewer personal injuries were reported this year for the January through April period.
