

Harvest Started In Ione Area

By Echo Palmateer

Harvest has started in the Morgan district. Among those starting this week are Elvin Miller, Roy Lindstrom and Frederick Martin.

The elevator at Morgan has been remodeled so the work is more automatic. Delmer Crawford is the operator there.

Children from here who attended the 4-H summer camp at Cutsforth park in the mountains last week were: Stephen Lindstrom, Ralph Martin, Bobby Lee De Spain, Joe Halvorsen, Lee Hams, John Rea, Tom Heimburger, Leslie Madden, Arieta McCabe, Bill Akers, Linda Halvorsen, Katherine Rea, Marjorie O'Connor, Elaine Gaarsland, Sherry Corley, Frances McLeod, Sandra Eubanks, Delores Emert, Marilee Leathers and Cheryl Lundell. Mardine Baker and Brenda Townsend were the counsellors. Nels Anderson and Miss Beverly Bradshaw of Heppner had charge of the camp. Some of the highlights of the meeting were, a hobo supper, hikes, movies on conservation, campfires, singing and games. The groups also had craft classes. Church services were conducted Sunday followed by a picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann were Portland visitors last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner and sons of Pendleton spent the weekend here with relatives.

H. O. Ely was taken to the Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner Sunday where he is a patient.

The American Legion post sponsored a very fine display of fire works on the athletic field Saturday evening, June 29. This was followed by a dance at the Legion hall with a large crowd attending. Johnny K's orchestra featuring Bert Wells of KEPR-TV. Bert Wells entertained the kiddies for half an hour with his songs. Members of the Auxiliary served refreshments at the dance. Donations put in jars in the stores went toward the fireworks.

The name of Miss Monetta Aldrich was omitted among those making loafer jackets for the veterans in the Walla Walla hospital. Mrs. Roger Kincaid, also, assisted in making the jackets.

Members of the Amica club and their families and friends enjoyed a picnic at Sacajawea park in Washington Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and children, Allan and Sally, of The Dalles spent Sunday with her brother and family Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lieuallen and children of Pendleton are visiting his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jepsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Williamson and children of Aurora, spent Sunday at the Milton Morgan home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Martin and family made a trip to Maupin Sunday to get a truck. They also visited relatives there.

Harold Holtz and Rollo Crawford returned home Saturday from Kindred, North Dakota, where they attended the Tews-Transgrud wedding. They also stayed at Fargo, Minn., and saw some of the effects of the tornado.

Mrs. Vester Hams gave a birthday party for her daughter, Karen, Tuesday, June 25, who was 9 years old. Guests present were Cathy and Betty Hansler, Susan Lindstrom, Cheryl Smouse, Marjorie and Larry O'Connor, Linda Whiteman, Marilee and Renee Leathers, Pamela McCabe, Leora Rigby and Elaine Gaarsland.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Rietmann attended the reception in honor of Mrs. Laurosa Hibbard, worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of the Eastern Star of Oregon and Mrs. Viola Burton, grand electa, at Elgin Saturday evening. The Rietmanns stayed over night in La Grande.

The Vacation Daily Bible school at the Church of the Nazarene closed Friday of last week. There was an average attendance of 18. The children gave a program at the church Sunday morning with songs and recitations and memory work by the primary and junior classes. Their handiwork was also on display.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Wilkes and sons are leaving this week for the Nazarene church camp, Pinelaw, near Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Horton of Dallas are visiting at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Martin.

Peggy Voorhees of Portland is visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan.

Dates to Remember:

July 10: Marantha club meeting at the Echo Palmateer home in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crutcher and children of Sandy stopped here Friday while on their way home from Baker where they visited relatives. He is the grandson of Mrs. Anna Lindstrom.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Martin and family attended the Marshall reunion at Clarkes June 23. The Marshalls are relatives of Mr. Martin.

Conservation Subject of Pomona Talk at Boardman

By Mery Lee Marlow

Mrs. Marion T. Weatherford of Arlington was principal speaker on the afternoon program at the Morrow county Pomona Grange meeting here Saturday. Her topic was "Conservation of Our Natural Resources." Mrs. Weatherford is national chairman of the Department of Conservation of Natural Resources of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Other numbers on the program were: Group singing, "America, the Beautiful"; American flag etiquette and courtesies by Mrs. Earl Briggs; vocal trio, "Open Up Your Heart" and "Jesus Loves Me", Charles Conyers, Teresa Thorpe and Linda Tatone; a grange quiz; and group singing, "America."

Preceding the program a memorial service was held for grange members of the county who have died. Mrs. Hugh Brown of Greenfield grange was in charge. Those honored from Greenfield grange, Boardman, were Iva Kunze, Pete Kitto and Ella Shell McDonald; Rhea Creek grange, Claude Houston, Harley Anderson, Adine Peterson and Joe Barlow; Willows grange, Phil Griffith, Addie Salter, Helena Buschke, Harry Yarnell and Algott Lundell; Lexington grange, Clemont Stockard, Miles Martin, Charles Marquardt.

During the business meeting in the afternoon a date for an annual picnic was set for the last Saturday in July starting in 1958. There will be no picnic this year.

The morning session was given to reports from the different granges.

Dinner was served at noon to 45 people by the Greenfield Home Economics club.

Mrs. Dewey West was installed as president of the Tillicum club in a candlelight ceremony Tuesday night of last week at the home of Mrs. Sigvald Aase. Mrs. Joe Tatone, club president, installed the officers, using a wheel as the theme, symbolizing the officers as spokes in the wheel. Other officers were Mrs. Ronald Black, vice-president and program chairman; Mrs. Harold Baker, recording secretary; Mrs. Ray Granquist, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Higuera, treasurer. Retiring officers were presented with gifts by Mrs. Tatone.

There were 10 members present and Mrs. Ala Aase of Brooklyn, N. Y. was a guest. Meeting opened with the club "Collect." The club voted to sell lemonade at the Pee Wee baseball game here

Sunday, giving the proceeds to the team.

Plans are being made to show another film from the Celanese Corporation some time in October. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harold Baker July 9.
