

North Morrow Fair Set Sept. 5-7

By Mary Lee Marlow
Dates for the North Morrow county fair have been announced for Sept. 5-7. Members of the fair board this year are Zearl Gillespie, chairman and Willard Baker of Boardman, and Warren McCoy of Irrigon. Mrs. Ralph Skoubo of Boardman is secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Skoubo announced that the premium lists will be mailed out as soon as they come from the printers.

The annual soil conservation tour was held last Saturday, starting at 9:30 a.m. at the Glen Aldrich farm at Irrigon where weed control in irrigation ditches were observed. At the H. H. Whipple farm new seedings and 1957 land leveling were seen, as well as a new way to hold newly constructed ditch banks where you want them. Next the tour went to the Paterson Ferry road where they saw how sand blows are being controlled.

A fried chicken dinner was served at noon at the Boardman city park. In charge were Mrs. Ralph Skoubo and Mrs. Ed Skoubo, assisted by Mrs. Arnold Hoffman, Mrs. Charles Higuera and Mrs. William Garner. Dinner was served to 25 people.

In the afternoon the tour went to the Charles Anderregg farm, where they saw wheat growing on reclaimed alkali land that had been thought impossible to grow a crop. Next the Alvin Drake farm was visited to view a good pasture seeding. At the Ralph Skoubo farm tall wheatgrass was observed, and it ability to grow under heavy alkali conditions. The last place on the tour was the Stanley Partlow farm where 20 acres of land recently leveled, and the value of strawing to establish new seedings was seen. Straw made the difference between good and poorer stands even on the deeper cuts. This job is one of the many now being done with the Boardman Soil Conservation District heavy equipment.

Members of the Greenfield grange discussed the proposed school reorganization bill at their meeting last week at the hall. Nathan Thorpe, grange master, appointed a committee to circulate petitions on the project to
