Cemetery District Discussed At Club Meeting Thursday

Mrs. Elaine S. George, secretary treasurer of the cemetery maintenance district spoke to the optimist club Thursday about a project started by the club which has developed into a real asset to the community.

The cemetery maintenance district idea originated with the optimist club and they contacted the Masonic lodge for permission and help in starting the project to beautify the local cemetery. Petitions were circulated for the forming of the district and there are now three cemeteries included Heppner, Pleasant and Rhea Creek, although a Heppner cemetery is the only one so far that has had much work on it.

Except for a short period there has always been a member of the optimist club on the board of directors of the district.

Guests were Mary Ann O'Donnell, who was with her grandmother, Mrs. Harry O'Donnell, Sr. and Kathie Roscoe, who is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Floyd Gams.
