Oregon Filbert Commission by Governor Holmes. The new commissioner, a director of both Dundee and Northwest Nutgrowers Cooperative, succeeds James P. Nelson, also of Portland, who resigned.

'Summer Ice' Brings Hazardous Driving Rain mixing with accumulated oil and dirt on a highway can cause dangerously slippery conditions, Oregon safety officials reminded drivers today.

The combination, called "summer ice", usually occurs after a hot day is followed by a rain shower.

Danger is increased because the road does not look slippery and a driver may hit his brakes only to find his car sliding out of control.

Drivers can reduce the hazard, officials said, if they will lower their speed as soon as a summer shower starts.

Grass and Legume Bulletin Issued Grasses and legumes recommended for Oregon—both for forage and seed production—are listed in a pocket-sized booklet just published by Oregon State college agricultural experiment station.

The 28-page listing of varieties also includes recommendations for flax, hops, and mint. To simplify variety recommendations, the booklet divides Oregon into seven distinct crop areas: Coast, Willamette valley, Southern Oregon, Columbia Basin, Blue Mountains, Central Oregon, and Snake River valley.

Brief descriptions of varieties include growing habits and adaptability to soil types, recommended use and management suggestions. Title "Forage, Seed and Specialty Crop Variety Recommendations," the circular is available from county extension agents or the OSC bulletin clerk, Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Vivian White, Brad and Craig of Anaheim, California visited last week at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Harry Duvall.

The new appointee, associated with her husband in publishing the Milwaukie Review, is a leader in community and metropolitan Portland affairs.

Named for an indefinite term to help plan Oregon's Centennial celebration in 1959, Mrs. Sweetland is the only woman member of the nine-member Commission.

E. R. Curfman, president of the Baker County Realty Board, was appointed by Governor Holmes to the State Real Estate Board.

The appointee who has been a member of the IOOF for over 40 years, is father-in-law and business partner of Congressman Al Ulman.

Members of the five-man real estate board which includes the state's Real Estate Commissioner Clarence Hyde conducts examinations for brokers' and salesmen's licenses and advises on needs and policies of the profession.

Claude I. Seranos, Portland industrialist with extensive walnut and filbert interests in Clackamas county, was appointed to the
