

NEW LAW ON EMERGENCY PHONE USE
ROUGH ON LONG-WINDED TALKERS

Effective in August, according to law it will be rough on those who refuse to give up a phone or party line for an emergency call, and it will be just as rough on those who request the phone or line because of an emergency that doesn't exist.

The law was enacted by the last legislature following a tragedy near Portland when a woman refused to hang up for an emergency call. It reads:

(1) Every person shall relinquish a telephone party line or a public pay telephone after he has been informed that the party line or telephone is needed to place an emergency call to a fire department or police department, or for emergency aid or ambulance service.

(2) No person shall request another to relinquish a telephone party line or pay telephone to place an emergency call to a fire department or police department, or for emergency medical aid or ambulance service knowing that no such emergency exists.

(3) Violation of the above law is punishable by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than $500 or both.

"Emergency" means a situation in which property or human life are in jeopardy and the summoning of aid is essential.

TED SMITHS ARE GRANDPARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Smith of Springfield are the parents of a daughter, Susan Lynn, born July 29. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith of Heppner.

Physical Exams Needed by Youngsters

Parents of all first and ninth grade students are again reminded that a physical examination is required by law for entry into school in these grades.

The "golden-rod" or physical examination forms have been placed in the offices of all physicians for use by those youngsters who have lost forms previously supplied them. Parents are urged to make appointments with their family physician at an early date so last minute rush can be avoided.

Accident Injury Cause Study Set

Oregon will participate in a major study to uncover injury causes in traffic accidents.

Approval for participation in the study, which is being conducted by Cornell University's medical school, has been given by the state traffic safety commission.

The study will extend over a two-year period in four areas of the state. Starting date for the project will depend on when Cornell representatives can come west to begin setting up procedures for handling reports.

The project will involve detailed reports from state police, attending physicians and hospitals. Study areas will be confined to rural highway accidents.

Primary purpose of the study is to find out exactly how injuries are inflicted in various types of accidents and to determine what can be done to reduce these injuries through re-designing of the automobile or installation of extra safety features.

DODGERS—one of the four Little League baseball teams who have played some top ball during the first season the league has been in existence in Heppner. Team members, not all of whom were present when this picture was taken, are: Donald Keeling, Bill Cox, Duane Geyer, Don Munkers, Dean Robinson, Tom Green, Mike Sweek, Danny McBride, Carl Bauman, John Privett, Dennis Warren, Jim Doherty, Lee Daggett and Tom Gonty.

Program Varied at Jefferson Co. Fair

"Plan for a weekend of fun!" That's the keynote of the Jefferson county fair and fourth annual Northwest Championship Junior Rodeo, scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 16, 17, and 18 in Madras.

Kicking off the events for the weekend will be the now-traditional street dance sponsored by Ned Cox, Thursday evening (August 15), with prizes to be awarded for the best "Gay Nineties calico gowns" modeled by participants.

Fair activities will be in full force Friday, with the coronation ball, at which one of the five candidates will be crowned queen, scheduled for Friday evening at the Legion hall. The popular Troy Fowler dance band will provide the music, and Maurice (Casey) Broadbent, mayor of Madras, has been invited to crown the queen.

With "Vacationland" the theme, the fair parade, sponsored by the Jaycees, will move through downtown Madras at 10 a.m. Saturday. The junior rodeo will get under way Saturday afternoon, registration having closed the preceding Thursday (August 15) at 9 p.m.

Again on Saturday night the Troy Fowler aggregation will hold sway at the Legion hall for the traditional Buckaroo dance.

Once again this year the Madras Kiwanis club will yield its customary Saturday night spot, formerly reserved for entertainment, so that there will be no conflict with the 4-H-FFA fat stock show and sale, sponsored by the Jefferson County Livestock Growers and Feeders association.

Starting bright and early Sunday and continuing throughout the morning, the Lions club's buckaroo breakfast will offer man-sized western-style breakfasts, plus plenty of entertainment, at the fairgrounds.

Sunday afternoon will see the windup of the fourth annual Northwest Championship Junior Rodeo.

All through the weekend, fairgoers will have an opportunity to view farm and livestock exhibits in 4-H, FFA, and open classes, plus the widely acclaimed Hobby Hall, where arts and crafts will be on display, and the full-scale flower show presented by the garden clubs of Jefferson county.

TAX PAYMENT DUE

Fourth quarter real and personal property taxes are due and payable at the county sheriff's office on or before August 15. Property owners are reminded

RHEA CREEK GRANGE

Rhea Creek grange will not meet Friday, August 9 as previously planned because everyone is so busy with harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Keeling had as guests over the weekend her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bibby of Renton, Washington and Mrs. Robert Bibby of Seattle. The William Bibbys took home their daughter Terry, who had been visiting the Keelings for a week.

Mrs. James Ware of Corvallis, former Heppner resident, was here Tuesday and Wednesday visiting relatives. She took her niece and nephew, Mary Shannon and Frankie King, home with her for a visit.

Mary Evelyn Tucker left Thursday for Salem to spend two weeks' vacation with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Tucker.

Mrs. Frank Adkins has had word that her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crisman of Medford are moving to Roseburg where he is going into business for himself.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pfeiffer and Johnny and Neal Penland left Wednesday for Dee lake in Canada where they will spend 10 days fishing.

John Wightman is visiting with his son and family, the Marvin Wightmans in Tamales, Calif. He went to attend the wedding of his granddaughter, Peggy Wightman.

Mrs. E. A. Vaughn of Portland, sister of Les Matlock, is here visiting and staying at the home of Mrs. Josie Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cox, Arthur Burkenbine and Mrs. Jessie Griffin were in Portland last weekend. The Coxes visited their son, David Lee, who is a patient at the Shrine hospital.

Marlene Griffin is visiting in Geraldine, Montana. She accompanied Rose and Joan Moe who have relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Doolittle were in Portland July 28 to attend the Morrow county picnic. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Akers in Aumsville and vacationed at Yachats and Camp Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson left Monday for Post Falls, Idaho to spend 10 days with relatives.

INSURANCE SUBJECT OF CHAMBER TALK

The value and purpose of life insurance was explained to members of the chamber of commerce Monday noon by Sam Haley, Pendleton representative of Mutual Insurance Company of New York. Haley explained how insurance fit into any retirement or protection plan and how it could serve both before and after death.

NEBRASKA PICNIC SET

The third annual potluck Nebraska reunion picnic will be held in the C.R.C. park in Hermiston Sunday, Aug. 11. Coffee, punch and ice cream will be furnished.

PICKUP STOLEN

A 1948 Dodge pickup owned by the Heppner schools was stolen sometime Saturday night from the school grounds, but was recovered Monday on Jones hill where it had been run off the road.

The pickup was damaged only slightly and it was not known whether the truck was intentionally run off the road or by accident as the brake master cylinder had gone out when it was found by police.

Mrs. Kemp Dick and Ronald Reid are in Portland this week to attend the flower school of the Oregon State Flower association.

Mrs. Elaine S. George and David are vacationing this week at Neahkanie Beach, Portland and Mosier.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knighten of Kennewick visited from Friday until Sunday with her mother, Mrs. L. D. Neill and Mr. Neill.

Mrs. A. J. Brock (Ethel Gentry) is spending part of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Munkers.

TALK ABOUT ECONOMY...
FORDS COST LESS PER MILE!

Fords cost less to buy!

No doubt about it! Model for model, Ford cars are the lowest priced* of the low-price three. And don't be fooled by those "low prices" now being quoted for some "stripped down" models in the medium-price field. Remember, a '57 Ford equipped the way most people want a car today—with automatic transmission, heater and radio—costs hundreds of dollars less than these medium-priced cars, similarly equipped.*

Fords cost less to run!

In the only nationally recognized test of gasoline economy, the 1957 Mobilgas Economy Run, a Ford Six delivered more miles per gallon than any other car entered! This, remember, was no "private test" conducted for the benefit of a single manufacturer. This was grueling competition between 12 different makes of cars... supervised by the United States Auto Club. And when the test was over, Ford led all other cars in the thing you want most—actual miles per gallon!

Fords cost less to trade!

Latest official auction sale figures on used cars show clearly that the new kind of Ford commands a higher price than either of its two low-priced competitors. The men who bid at these auctions are professional buyers—men whose very livelihood depends upon their expert knowledge of cars. They pay more for used Fords because they know that Fords hold up in value. Like thousands of Ford owners from coast to coast, they have discovered that Ford is worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it, too!
