Wanda Hug Married To Hermiston Man At Boardman Church

Miss Wanda Laurine Hug became the bride of En. 3c Herman Lewis Bush at the Boardman Community church Aug. 14. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arlin A. Hug of Boardman, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Bush of Hermiston. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. P. Sconce, pastor of the First Baptist church in Hermiston.

The bride wore a light gray suit with white accessories, and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Sid Ferguson of Coeur d'Alene, Ida. was her sister's matron of honor, and wore a pink suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

James Bush of Hermiston brother of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the basement of the church. Mrs. Delmer Hug, sister-in-law of the bride, served the cake, after the first piece was cut by the bridal couple. Mrs. Sid Ferguson poured the coffee, and Miss Jean Scott served the punch.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hug wore a grey dress with red accessories. The groom's mother wore a black dress with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Boardman high school. The groom is in the U. S. Navy and is stationed at San Diego, Calif. on the U. S. Apache. After a short trip the couple left Monday for San Diego. After a month there the groom will be sent to Alaska for three months, and the bride will return here.

Guests at the wedding were the parents of the couple, Betty Bush, sister of the groom, Miss Jean Scott, Miss Zelma Cowan, and Connie and Carolyn Baker.

"A Wise Physician Is More than Armies to the Public Weal"

By Phil Blakney
"Weal" is an old English word that means welfare, and everyone agrees that physicians are worth more than armies.

Modern physicians have new skilled diagnostic techniques that enable them to more certainly know the cause of a sickness. The pharmaceutical profession supplies them with many new perfected drugs that can be depended upon to accomplish a desired result. Physicians no longer rely on just few medicines carried in their bag or office. They write a prescription for the one drug that will help most knowing that prescription pharmacies like ours carry thousands to choose from.
