"Sandwich In" A Canned Meat

The canned meat shelf offers many a fine sandwich filling. Popular meats ready-to-use include: luncheon meat, Vienna sausage, ham and deviled ham. These meats in cans may also be ground and mixed with mayonnaise and chopped crisp vegetables for sandwich spreads. Or a choice may be made from one of the ready prepared and seasoned deviled and potted spreads.

Here are recipes for sandwich spreads calling for deviled ham and luncheon meat.

Luncheon Meat Spread
 1 can (12 ounces) luncheon meat 1/4 cup mayonnaise
 1 cup finely diced celery 2 teaspoons lemon or lime juice
 1/4 cup pickle relish
 Grind luncheon meat; add celery and pickle relish. Combine mayonnaise and lemon juice; add to luncheon meat mixture. YIELD: Enough for 8 sandwiches.

Ham N'Egg Spread
 1 can (4 1/2 ounces) deviled ham 1/4 cup finely diced celery
 1 hard cooked egg, chopped Mayonnaise to moisten
 Combine all ingredients; mix well. YIELD: Enough for 4 sandwiches.

Vienna Sausage Pizzas
 8 English muffins 1/2 cup (1 stick) butter, melted
 2 cans (8 ounces each) tomato sauce 2 cans (4 ounces each) cheese
 1/2 pound American or Mozzarella cheese
 Cut English muffins in half; brush with approximately 3 tablespoons butter. Toast until golden brown. Spread each muffin with a tablespoon of tomato sauce. Cover with slices of American or Mozzarella cheese. Sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese and oregano. Spoon a teaspoon of melted butter on each pizza before putting in oven. Top with Vienna sausage. Bake in moderately hot oven. (400° F.) for 15 minutes. YIELD: 16 Party Pizzas.

25th Anniversary Celebrated Sunday By E. Markham Bakers

Mr. and Mrs. E. Markham Baker of Ione celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at their home Sunday, September 8.

A buffet dinner was served at noon to out of town relatives and a reception was held in the afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The tea table featured a large sheet cake decorated in pink, green and silver and the numerals 25, and pink and white carnations were used on the table.

Those serving were Mrs. Kedric Baker, Mrs. Charles Hoover, Mrs. Ken Shellenberger, Mrs. Lloyd Howton, Mrs. Floyd Bailey, Mrs. Ray Heimbigner, Mrs. Marion Palmer and Mrs. Milton Morgan.

Linda Hoover had charge of the guest book and Lana Baker, the gifts. The silver service that was used during the afternoon was a gift of the Baker's children.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker were married September 3 at Pullman, Washington and lived in Kahlotus, Wash. before coming here, where they have lived on their farm south of Ione for 20 years. They have two sons, Ronald and Duane, and one daughter, Mar-dine.

Hosts for the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Baker of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Baker of Forest Grove and Miss Mardine Baker.

Those coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Kedric Baker and children, Lana and Jay; Amiel Van Buren and son, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Shellenberger and sons Mike, and Creg, all of Walla Walla; Mrs. Charles Hoover and children, David, Linda and Jan and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Moore of Pendleton; and Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Ison of Milton-Freewater.

Ione Sorority Makes Plans For The Year

The Ione chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha held its first fall meeting at the home of Mrs. Eldon Padberg with Mrs. Don Heliker as co-hostess, Wednesday evening, September 4.

Present were two new members who have transferred from other Oregon chapters. They are Mrs. Dallas Shockey and Mrs. Charles Hudson.

At the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Padberg, the ways and means committee reported they made $29.68 serving the rodeo dance lunch, August 17.

The members decided to serve a stag night dinner in January for the Heppner Elks.

The educational and social programs were planned for the year. The following social events are scheduled for the coming year: a surprise party, a scavenger hunt, the annual preferential tea, Christmas party, game night, hobo party, progressive dinner, April Fool's party and the annual May banquet.

The educational topic for the year will be The Gracious Hostess.

'New World' Prophets

NEW YORK, N. Y. — Author Aldous Huxley, right, who foretold the coming of the tranquilizing drugs more than 25 years ago in his novel, "Brave New World," chats with Dr. Frank M. Berger, center, Medical Director of Wallace Laboratories, New Brunswick, N.J., who headed the research group that developed the tranquilizer, "Miltown," (meprobamate). Shown at left is Mr. Huxley's brother, Julian, a noted biologist. The occasion was a conference on "Miltown" held by the New York Academy of Sciences. Nearly 600 doctors and guests, one of the largest groups to attend an Academy conference, heard Aldous Huxley discuss the historical and philosophical aspects of miltown.
