ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH SCENE OF O'HARRA-NEWMAN WEDDING SATURDAY

A bride of Saturday was Miss Constance Jo Ann Newman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Newman, whose wedding to Lelan F. O'Harra was at noon at St. Patrick's Catholic church with the Rev. Patrick J. Gaire officiating. Mr. O'Harra is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwayne O'Harra of Weston.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long dress of white imported lace over satin, made with a tiered skirt, high neck and long pointed sleeves. Her double veil was held in place with a heart shaped crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and white carnations.

For something borrowed she wore an ivory hand-carved medallion from the Holy Land, blessed in Jerusalem and loaned by Mrs. Frank Lindstrom of Ione, and for something blue she had a small blue bow at the back of her orchid.

Mrs. Jack Bond of Walla Walla was matron of honor and wore a blue ballerina length dress with a yellow cummerbund, matching shoulder length veil held in place with pearls and carried white carnations with yellow streamers.

Bridesmaids were dressed similar to the matron of honor with Miss Joyce Gaston of Weston wearing green with a pink cummerbund and Miss Marge Talbot, Joseph, wearing pink with a green cummerbund.

Trisha Farley, flower girl, was dressed in white with a blue bow and blue veil.

Best man was Fred Lorenzen of Pendleton and ushers were Donald Smock, Weston, cousin of the groom and Charles McCullough, Salem.

Mrs. Harry D'Donnell Jr. was soloist and Miss Marguarite Glavey, organist.

The mother of the bride and the mother of the groom, both chose brown two-piece afternoon dresses, matching accessories and each wore a corsage of green orchids.

At the reception which followed the ceremony, the bride's table was covered with a white embroidered cloth from Damascus and was centered with the three tiered wedding cake iced in blue and decorated with roses and wedding bells on the top.

Mrs. Fred Davis, sister of the bride, cut the cake and Mrs. Virgil Weathers, aunt of the groom, served.

Mrs. Cal Hanlon, aunt of the bride and Mrs. James J. Farley poured and Miss Arleta Nord and Miss Jeanie Weathers, cousin of the groom, were at the punch bowl at a linen covered table centered with white carnations and white tapers.

Mrs. Ernest Haney, cousin of the groom, was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. James Gentry, Mary Lou Pavelcik and Pamela Davis, niece of the bride, were in charge of the gift table.

Jerry Weathers, cousin of the groom, passed the groom's cake. Members of the Altar Society, who helped with the reception, were Mrs. Jerry Daggett, Mrs. James Monahan, Mrs. William Sowell, Miss Marguarite Glavey, Mrs. Harry O'Donnel, Jr. and Mrs. Ray Smith.
