

MUSTANGS TAKE McEWEN 25-13

Moro Huskies To Play Here Friday Night

By Jim Morris

Paced by the running of Duane Alderman, the passing of Tom Driscoll, and the defensive play of Dick Ruhl, the Heppner High Mustangs rolled to a 25-13 victory over McEwen's Scotties Friday night on the Heppner field. Although the Mustangs were held scoreless in the first half of the game, they came back to explode in an all out effort that netted them their 25 points.

The Horsement took the opening kickoff, but on the first play, fumbled and the Scotties took over the ball. From that point they immediately marched to a score. The remaining part of the half was a defensive battle and neither team was able to move the ball into scoring territory.

After intermission the Mustangs seemed to be a different team as they put up a stone wall defense which stopped the Scotties cold. The Mustang offense started to click as they ran over, around and through the McEwen club for four touchdowns.

In statistics the Mustangs netted 232 yards and 11 first downs to the 143 yards and 7 first downs for the Scotties.

Heppner's next game is with the Moro Huskies, October 4, at 8 p.m. at the Heppner field.

ATTEND M-F RALLY

The Milton-Freewater Christian church was the gathering place for 171 young people from the Christian churches of Northeast Oregon and Southeast Washington for the first of their Fifth Sunday rallies. Attending from Heppner Christian church were Libby Van Schoelack, Sandra and Terry Campbell, John Jay Stratton, Tom Green and Rev. Charles Knox.

Number of Opening Day Hunters Small

A sizeable number of hunters took advantage of Governor Holmes's last-minute opening of the deer season last Saturday, and early reports in this area told of many deer being killed, but Glen Ward, state game representative here, reported Tuesday that there were only about 40 percent as many hunters in the woods on opening day as there was last year.

The small number of first day hunters was attributed to the fact that many persons found it impossible to get away on the short notice given before opening day. The governor changed his plans Friday noon after rain started to fall over much of the state, and rescinded his previous closure notice.

Ward said that game officials and state police expect a big influx of hunters this weekend.

College Registrar To Be Speaker At Heppner PTA Meeting

Lyle Johnson, registrar, Eastern Oregon College, will be the featured speaker at the PTA meeting Wednesday evening, October 9, at the Heppner school.

The program, on preparing for college, scholastically and socially, has been planned to be of special interest to high school seniors and their parents. A panel discussion on the program subject will also be held according to Mr. and Mrs. William Barratt, chairmen.

Hospitality will be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Warren and refreshments will be served by the senior class parents.

4-H PARTY DATED

The 4-H achievement party has been set for Saturday, Nov. 2 at 6:30 p.m. at the fair pavilion. It will be preceded by a potluck dinner.

FINAL TALLY REVEALS MANY COUNTY 4-H STATE FAIR WINNERS THIS YEAR

Following is what is thought to be a complete list of local state fair 4-H winners. A few of the list may have been run previously but it is thought that this listing is complete.

In past years the state fair has sent out lists of winners to all newspapers but this year the practice was stopped, making it nearly impossible to find out all winners.

Conservationists Tour Ranches

A group of 26 soil conservation service and extension service field technicians toured the Heppner soil conservation district last Wednesday as part of an agronomy workshop itinerary that covered southeastern Wash. and northeastern Oregon.

Farms visited in this area included the Jack Sumner, Don Peterson, Paul Brown and Al Bunch ranches where strip cropping, stubble mulching and other conservation practices were inspected. Information gained on the entire route will equip field technicians to assist farmers in planning and applying needed conservation practices on their land. Tom Wilson, local conservationist, was one of the tour members.

Committee of P-TA Makes Plans For Discussion Groups

The study group committee of the Heppner P-TA met recently at the V. L. Kreimeyer home to make suggestions for topics of discussion for the group meetings to be held this year.

The committee is Mrs. William Rawlins chairman, Joe Stewart, Mrs. Velma Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schmidt and Mr. and Mrs. Vic Kreimeyer.

The following topics will be presented to the P-TA this next Wednesday evening as possibilities for study groups this winter: adult typing course, reports to parents, re-organization of school district, juvenile problems, photography, woodworking and the great religions of the world.

Survey of Scripture Series to Start

The public is invited to attend a special comprehensive survey of the basic teachings of Scripture which is being held by the Hope and Valley Lutheran churches. Beginning at 7 p.m. every Tuesday at Hope Lutheran church and every Wednesday at 7 p.m. in a home for the people of the Ione area, the survey is planned for 10 sessions and is designed for anyone who would like to increase their knowledge of Scripture.

The sessions are based on a home-study manual "What The Bible Says" and includes excellent 16mm color films released by the Moody Institute of Science. The first meeting which is being held next Tuesday, October 8 at Hope Lutheran church and Wednesday, October 9 at the Carl Bergstrom home, takes up the subject of creation as chance or the product of master planning. The film "Dust or Destiny" will review the wonders of the human body, the radar of bats, the actions of the strange grunion fish, mysteries of bird migration and the gyroscope of the housefly far in advance of our own scientific achievement.

The discussion will ask how each year's new generation of Pacific golden plovers find their way over 2,000 miles of open sea without a leader; how the fledgling arctic tern flies 22,000 miles from the north to the south pole and back again without losing its way and what enables the bat to move in darkness with the aid of a marvelous built-in "radar" system.

Rev. Zier explained that the main purpose of the classes was to give an objective presentation of Scriptural teachings and encourage anyone who desired to present their views also. Provision has been made for taking care of children at the church while the discussions are in progress.

Church Men Hear Talk on Holland

The Christian Men's Fellowship of the First Christian church met for their regular meeting Monday, opening with a full spaghetti dinner. Twenty-two men comprised the group who heard Harry Bongers, local hospital administrator, talk on his native country of Holland. Preceding the talk Rev. Charles Knox presented vocal numbers. The next CMF meeting will be the last Monday of October.

Special Meetings Set by Methodists

The Rev. Paul Peterson of the Wesley Methodist church, of Eugene, is to be in Heppner for special meetings to be held October 7 through Friday, October 11. They will be held in the Methodist church evenings at 7:30 and are classified as "informal" and "informational". Questions on Christian life and church membership will be welcomed. Wednesday evening is youth night and it will be opened by a potluck supper at 6 p.m. A special session with Rev. Peterson will follow the dinner. High school students are invited.

Visitors at the Larry Downen home Saturday and Sunday were his mother, Mrs. Stan May and Mr. May, of Renton, Washington.

Heart Council Planned Here

Plans for the formation of a local Heart Council were started Tuesday night at a meeting held at the office of Mrs. Velma Glass, county health nurse. Present were Wade Patterson, Portland, program consultant for the Oregon Heart association, who explained how the newly formed Heart Council can assist the association unit's county service and public education program.

Present were Mrs. Glass, Harry Bongers, Mrs. Riley Munkers, representing the Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Harold Laird and Dr. C. M. Wagner. Other members of the council are Lowell Gribble and Cliff Coleman, who is memorial chairman.

Patterson also spoke at a staff meeting at Pioneer Memorial hospital where he explained the Oregon Heart association work classification unit for physician-referred heart patients. Patients are sent to Portland where a team of experts determine their specific capabilities. When indicated, many of the patients are given rehabilitation training provided by the division of vocational rehabilitation. Others are given individual guidance toward obtaining a vocational objective. Colored slides and a pamphlet, "Cardiacs can work", supplemented Patterson's presentation.

Extension Unit To Meet Tuesday

The October meeting of the home extension for the Heppner unit will be held Tuesday, October 8 at 11 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Gene Ferguson.

Anyone interested is invited to attend this meeting. Please bring some frozen food that you have prepared for this meeting.

Lunch will be furnished by the hostesses for a nominal charge.

Justice and Municipal Courts

George Weise, illegal U-turn, $15 bail.

Max DeLos Collings, possession of game bird during closed season, $50 fine and 30-day suspended jail sentence.

Heppner Grad High In OSC English Test

Gerald "Jay" Sumner of Heppner gained one of the top scores in the English placement examination taken by 2216 new freshmen students last week at Oregon State college. He had a score of 182 out of a possible 225 points on the test. A Bend high school graduate, Donald C. Fuhr, received the highest score, 202 points.

The comprehensive test covered recognition of grammatical errors, punctuation, sentence clarity and effectiveness, reading, vocabulary and spelling.

The placement tests help faculty advisers and students, know for which classes or sections of classes the individual student is best prepared. They are given as part of new student week activities prior to registration.

Sumner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cal Sumner.

John Hartman returned from Providence hospital in Portland last Saturday and is convalescing at his home.

The Jim Valentine family spent the weekend in Spokane, visiting his daughter and son-in-law.

ATTEND BANK MEETING

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Buchner left Wednesday for Portland where he will attend the annual fall conference of the Oregon Bankers association, and a meeting of Independent Bankers on Saturday. Buchner is on the committee in charge of both meetings.

Saturday night they will attend the annual Bank of California football party.

VISIT FORMER RESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Oral Scott of Hermiston who formerly farmed in this area, were recently in Helena, Mont. where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dick, also former residents of Heppner. The Scotts just missed the Kemp Dicks, who had been visiting there.

WRECK INJURES TWO

Faye Prock and Ed Adkins were treated at Pioneer Memorial hospital Friday night for injuries received when Prock's car struck loose gravel on the Willow creek road above Heppner and went out of control. Prock was badly bruised and Adkins is still hospitalized with facial cuts and abrasions.

The car was badly damaged.

Hunting guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cleveland over the weekend were Al Conser and Ted Marsh of Portland.
