Former Heppner Girl Married in Portland Ceremony October 12

In a setting of white gladioli, yellow roses and carnations, Miss Virginia Lee Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Griffin of Portland, became the bride of Mr. Thomas J. Caldera, son of Mrs. Joe Jesso of Portland, on Saturday, October 12 at Kern Park Christian church with the Rev. Bob Mulkie officiating. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a ballerina length dress of white lace over satin. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of white pearls. She carried a single white orchid with rosebuds and stephanotis, held by white satin ribbon streamers on a white Bible. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Nina Louise Griffin, who wore a yellow faille dress and a hat of yellow net. She carried a cascade of yellow carnations and white stephanotis. The best man was George McLean, and ushers were Stanley Cox and Forrest Burkenbine of Heppner. Debra Lynn Hetzel was flower girl, dressed in yellow faille and net hat matching that of the bride's attendant. She carried a nosegay of yellow carnations. Caddlegifts were Robin Koff and Norman Phillip Griffin, half sister and brother of the bride. Mrs. Barbara LaChamber played the wedding march and accompanied Seabert Carter, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother chose a navy blue suit with light blue accessories and wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Her grandmother, Mrs. Jessie Griffin wore a black tweed suit and matching accessories, and Mrs. Louise Peters, a navy dress and matching accessories. Their corsages were of yellow carnations. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after the first piece of cake was cut by the bride and groom, it was served by Mrs. Richard Borman. The grandmothers poured. Mrs. Forest Burkenbine was in charge of the guest book and Miss Roberta Zook was in charge of the gifts. Acting hostess was Mrs. Monetta Aldrich, who also baked the wedding cake which was a three-tiered cake topped with pink rosebuds and a bride and groom in front of white wedding bells, with a tiny wedding party at the base. Those coming from a distance were Mrs. Jessie Griffin and daughter Marlene, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cox and David Lee and Dianne Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Burkenbine, Mrs. Richard Borman and Ben Cox, all Heppner; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Aldrich and Mrs. Monetta Aldrich, Ione; Mr. and Mrs. Roland Koff and Bobbie of Lebanon and Clode Koff, Klamath Falls. The bride was a 1957 graduate of Franklin high school in Portland and had attended grade school in Heppner, graduating from grade school in Ione. The groom is attending Advertising Art school in Portland. The young couple will be at home at 4729 N.E. 62nd Ave., Portland.
