Boardman UNICEF Drive Nets $23

By Mary Lee Marlow

The UNICEF drive here got $23, which is about the same as last year. Before youngsters went out to collect the pennies, they were treated with a costume party by the Tillicum club at the school. Prizes were given as follows: Most original costume, Bobby Skoubo as an Indian, first; Anna Obermeier, French girl, second; Jerry Partlow, "Mr. Scrooge," 3rd; Funniest, Dennis Granquist, a farmer. Ugliest, Sandra Thorpe, a Negro mammy. Prettiest, Dewena West.

Judy Partlow, high school freshman, was crowned queen of the school carnival Saturday night held in the old gymnasium. Her partner was Larry West. Princesses and escorts were Wanda Forthman and Dean King, Barbara Gantenbein and Jerry Peck, and Teresa Obermeier and Bill Taylor. A large crowd attended the carnival.

Mrs. Henry Zivney was elected president of P.T.A. at the meeting Wednesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Delbert Carpenter is vice president, Mrs. Russell Miller secretary; and Mrs. Clifford Jones treasurer. The decision was made to have a meeting the third Thursday of each month, the next one to be Nov. 21 at 2:30 p.m.

"Where else could I find a servant like electricity for 34¢ a day?"

...says Mrs. Milton Diamond, a Pacific Power customer

"Electricity works for me around the clock. And, believe me, my electric appliances get a real work-out serving my family of five. I'm amazed that the average cost of our electric service is only 34 cents a day."

Tens of thousands of Pacific Powerland homemakers are discovering how little it costs to live better electrically. Count up the hard-working electric helpers in your home, then figure how little they cost per day to use. You'll agree with Mrs. Diamond of Hood River, Oregon, that PP&L electric service is today's biggest bargain.

Are you enjoying full-time use of PP&L's dependable electric service? Stop in at your appliance dealer's soon and see all the modern electric appliances that can help you live so much better for so little cost.
