Ione Sorority Makes Plans For Projects During Coming Year

A model business meeting of the Beta Omega chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha met at the home of Mrs. Donald Peterson Nov. 6 with Mrs. Corliss McLeod and Mrs. Tad Miller as co-hostesses. The three rushees present were Mrs. Sharon Cutsforth, Mrs. Judy Bushke and Miss Beverly Bradshaw.

At the meeting conducted by Mrs. Eldon Padberg, president, the members decided to sell 250 appointment calendars before the first of the year. The members voted to each raise $5 from individual projects such as selling fancy work, baked goods, baby sitting and hair cutting. The membership announced that plans were being made for the annual preferential tea. The members announced they would be pleased to receive suggestions from the public on a local philanthropic project which they might undertake this year.

The educational program was conducted by Mrs. Walter Corley and Mrs. Eldon Padberg. Mrs. Corley gave the history of the chapter which is now in its fifth year. She recalled the philanthropic projects which were the yearly donations to the crippled children's hospital in Eugene, $200 to the Ione wading pool, 12 bath robes to the Pioneer Memorial hospital, piping of water to the Ione cemetery and soliciting for the Red Cross and Easter seals.

Mrs. Padberg gave a review of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha international.
