

Monument News

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sweek have moved back to their home in town. They have been making their home at the George Capon ranch with their daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Croker and son Ronny, were supper guests at the Henry Martin home Tuesday evening.

Arlet Fleming drove Mrs. Jack Jewel to Heppner the first of the week to consult a doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wicks and son Joey of Springfield, Gilbert Raymond of Eugene and Roy Harmon of Blue River returned to their homes after an elk hunting trip with Elmer Matteson. They got three cows.

A large number of persons turned out Thursday evening for the American Legion and Auxiliary meeting held at the Mead Gilman home. Joeava Enright, Mamie Ferguson and Irene Forrest served the refreshments.

Doris Capon drove her mother, Delsie Sweek to John Day Monday.

Grandma Glenger was very ill for a few days, but is much better now.

Mrs. Joe Wheeler stayed at the L-S ranch and looked after things while Katie and Dean Enright were hiding for cattle.

Mrs. Verne McCarty and three children were dinner guests Saturday at the Ray Davis home.

The Archie Cox family spent Saturday in John Day on business.

The Columbia Power Co-op meeting and dance has been changed from Monument to Spray as the new gym will not be finished in time.

Due to the fact that the new gym is not ready for use, the M.M.M. club will not have its yearly Thanksgiving dance, but will let Long Creek have the dance this year. It is hoped the Legion and Auxiliary will get to give their Gay 90's dance in January.

A large group drove to Spray Saturday for the amateur hour and dance.

The new office built by the state forestry department is nearly completed.

The new dial phone system is starting to build a new office building in town.

Gus Peterson and Rho Bleakman were business callers in Heppner Friday.

Southland Chicken Salad

With chicken one of the best buys, you'll be having it often probably, which means more left-overs. Here's something different to do to stretch them, in the way of a cool, delightful salad, one with added flavor and food value with little effort.

To your greens, diced celery, and diced chicken, add canned Florida grapefruit and orange sections, plump and as refreshing as a tall glass of citrus juice, and particularly fitting for summer fare. The canned sections this year are of excellent quality, low in price, and so versatile you'll find plenty of other uses for them in your menus. Here's the citrus-chicken salad recipe:

Florida Chicken Salad

- 1 can 20-ounce Florida orange and grapefruit sections
- 2 cups diced cooked chicken
- 1 cup diced celery
- 2 tablespoons lime juice
- 1/4 cup mayonnaise
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- Salad greens

Drain citrus sections thoroughly. Add drained sections to chicken and celery in mixing bowl. Mix together lime juice, mayonnaise and seasoning. Add to salad and toss lightly. Serve with salad greens and garnish with additional sections.

YIELD: 5 to 6 servings.

A Festive Holiday Pudding

What a heavenly dessert... what a compliment to a holiday meal! It's Fruited Holiday Pudding, a delightful blend of juicy tangerine sections, figs, almonds and raspberry-flavored gelatin, crowned with an extra topping of whipped cream and tangerine sections. Chill and serve in your most elegant crystal bowl. You'll glow with pride when this fluffy pink dessert appears on the table.

Fruited Holiday Pudding

- 1 package raspberry-flavored gelatin
- 1 cup hot water
- 1/2 cup cold water
- 2 tangerines, sectioned and ground
- 1/2 cup ground figs
- 1/4 cup slivered toasted almonds
- 1 cup whipping cream

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add cold water and ground tangerines. Chill until slightly thickened. Whip cream. Then fold in figs, almonds, and whipped cream. Turn into serving dish. Chill. Garnish with additional whipped cream and tangerine sections, if desired. Makes 6 to 8 servings.
