

Cash Prizes Offered for Naming These Well-Known Local Santas

Because Heppner merchants "Feel Like Santa Claus" and this week are giving away the first of 22 weekly prizes, the Gazette Times wants its readers to get acquainted with all the Santas and is offering special prizes to the first readers who can identify all the Santa pictures on this page. The GT "Feels Like Santa" too, and is proving it by giving cash and other gifts to early-bird "Santa Identifiers."

HERE ARE THE RULES
Each of the accompanying pictures of local business-men and women Santas is numbered. Just identify by name, or by the name of the store which he or she owns or in which he works, all 22 of the Santas. Mark the names under the pictures, or on a separate sheet of paper with the number of each Santa and bring or mail to Gazette Times. As each entry is received it will be numbered in order and the first four persons to correctly name all the Santas listed (or most nearly correct list) will receive the following prizes:

1st prize—$7.50 in cash.

2nd prize—$5.00 in cash.
3rd and 4th prizes—each a 1 year subscription to the Gazette Times (or a 1-year extension to your present subscription.)

Remember time is important, for the first correct list wins the first prize and so on. All entries must be received by the Gazette Times before 5 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 4, and winners will be announced in next week's paper.

Just a hint . . . every Santa pictured here is also shown in some store's advertisement in this week's paper! Better look 'em over carefully, though.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

From the Files of The Gazette Times December 1, 1927

R. W. Volle and Alfred Medlock have erected a new sawmill on Rhea creek just above the forks of the creek and are now sawing up logs.

Karl L. Beach of Lexington spent Thanksgiving with the folks at Walla Walla, where his son Laurel, is a student at Whitman college.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Akers came up from Portland on Wednesday last, arriving in time for Thanksgiving with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barlow.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clouston of Pendleton spent Thanksgiving in Heppner being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Devin, parents of Mrs. Clouston.

Ture Peterson, proprietor of Lone Meat Market, was called to this city Wednesday on business.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. A. Reany at Lexington Saturday, when there gathered a large number of children of Mrs. Reany, with their families.

TO THE EDITOR . . .

A Tribute to the Heppner Soil Conservation District—

One of the nicest things that can happen to a person when he has served the public is to receive a pat on the back for the efforts he has contributed. That "To Newt O'Hara for distinguished service" on the plaque that I received Monday evening is one of the nicest things I have ever had said to me or about me, knowing that it comes from the hearts of the donors, which is all of you.

I will always cherish it above all others.

Newt O'Hara.

LEXINGTON

The Lexington volleyball girls went to Boardman Monday night where they won fourth in a tournament. Cecil Jones and Eileen Padberg drove buses for them.

B. J. Doherty and sons Dennis and Roger were weekend visitors in Eugene with Don Casteel who is attending the University of Oregon.
