Six New Members Pledged By Lone Sorority At Tea

Beta Omega chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha held its annual pre-festive tea at the home of Mrs. Don Heliker on Wednesday, Nov. 28.

Six new members were pledged to the chapter in an impressive candlelight ceremony conducted by Mrs. Eldon Padberg, who was assisted by Mrs. Ted Palmateer.

New members pledged are Miss Joan Wright, Miss Beverly Bradshaw, Mrs. Delmer Buschke, Mrs. Arthur Warren, Mrs. Kenneth Cutsforth, and Mrs. William Scrimier.

Mrs. Charles Hudson and Mrs. Dallas Shockley were officially affiliated with Beta Omega from other Epsilon Sigma Alpha chapters.

Members were entertained during the tea by a reading given by Mrs. Hudson. Mrs. Don Hatfield sang "Softly As In a Morning" and "Wouldn't It Be Lovely", accompanied by Mrs. Marquardt.

The tea table was decorated in the sorority colors of blue and gold.

Mrs. Padberg and Mrs. Robert Riemann poured.

SADIE HAWKINS DANCE HELD SATURDAY

Most of the large group of Hepner high school students which assembled in the gymnasium Saturday night for the annual Sadie Hawkins dance were appropriately clad in hillbilly garb. Prizes for the best costumes went to Eddie Groshens and Elaine Laird. Refreshments of punch and cookies were served during the evening.

Rev. and Mrs. Zier Complimented Friday With Baby Shower

Families of the Lutheran church congregation gathered at the church parlors Friday evening for a cradle shower complimenting Rev. and Mrs. Merlin Zier.

There were about 50 members of the congregation present at the meeting which took the place of the regular monthly family night of the Lutheran church.

The evening was devoted to games, highlight of which was the identification of baby pictures of church members, with Miss Judy Schmidt guessing the largest number correctly. Another source of much merriment was the assignment of Rev. Zier to the task of dressing baby David Schmidt. Refreshments and opening of gifts followed the games.

The committee in charge of the shower was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Holtz of Lone, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Matheny and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schmidt.

69th Anniversary Observed by Rebekahs

Sans Souci Rebekah lodge held a special potluck dinner Wednesday evening in observance of the 69th anniversary of the lodge, with about 45 Rebekahs, Oddfellows and their families attending.

Corsages were given to pioneer Rebekah members and a brief history of the lodge was given.

Following the regular meeting of Willows lodge No. 66, IOOF, films were shown by Betty Rood and Randall Peterson.

50th Anniversary Celebrated Recently By Arthur Gammells

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Gammell celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary recently with a family dinner and open house at the Central Grange hall at Veneta, Ore., near Eugene.

The turkey dinner was served at noon by members of the grange and the Willing Workers club.

A short program was enjoyed during the afternoon when Central grange put on a mock wedding. Karl Gerdner sang several numbers accompanied by Mrs. Cliff Poole and Bob Stevens played violin selections accompanied by Mrs. Allen Lowe.

The wedding cake baked by Mrs. John DeMoss, was on the same glass stand used 50 years ago for their wedding cake and it was decorated in gold and trimmed with a sugar rose which had also been on the wedding cake 50 years ago. On the tables were crocheted tablecovers made by Mrs. Harold Stevens.

Mrs. Paul Gammell cut the cake. Mrs. Harold Stevens and Mrs. John DeMoss served the ice cream. Mrs. Ray Chandler served the punch and Mrs. Ben Campbell poured.

The occasion also honored Mr. Gammell's mother, Mrs. Emma Gammell of Salem, who was 96 years old in October.

Seven friends who had attended the wedding 50 years ago were also present.

Over 100 friends of the honored couple signed the guest book which was in charge of Miss Ida Fay Gammell and Miss Merry Pearson.

All of the Gammell's children were present, 20 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. One grandson was unable to attend.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Emma Gammell, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gammell, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. James Gammell and Dick, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tyler, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill and family, Coos Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harris, Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brown, Mrs. Edna Whitney and Jon, Mrs. Gertie Rankin and Mrs. Myrtle Ham, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Storey, Junction City and Bill Living, Lavena, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Gammell made their home at Lexington and Hepner for 38 years, moving to Veneta 12 years ago.

Past Noble Grands Have Annual Dinner

Sans Souci Rebekah Past Noble Grands club held its annual dinner recently at the home of Mrs. Frank Ayers.

About 20 members were present and secret pals of the past year were revealed with gifts being exchanged.

A short business meeting was held and officers elected with Mrs. Altha Kirk the new president; Mrs. Mary McMurry vice president and Mrs. Ruth Bergstrom, secretary.

Because of so much illness it was decided to postpone the entertaining of the district N. G.'s until a more favorable time.
