Mr. and Mrs. Emil Groshens left Tuesday for Portland where they will spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barratt and Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Dick Jr. attended the Oregon-OSC football game in Eugene Saturday. While their parents were at the game the Barratt children visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ferguson in Oswego and the Dick children visited at the home of their uncle, Jack Forsythe, in Portland.

Phil Hitchcock and son, Steven were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Koenig, from Portland last weekend. They were here for the elk hunting.

Lutheran Bible Series Nears End

The ninth in the series of one and one-half hour discussions on "What the Bible says" will be held Tuesday, Dec. 3 at 7:30 at Hope Lutheran church. The concept of time and its implications for the individual as revealed in the scripture will be reviewed as part of what the chapter says about "What the Bible says about our Christian responsibilities."

Of special interest will be the film, "Time and Eternity," which explores the mysteries of time and has been described as one of the most thought-provoking pictures produced. It centers around understanding something of Einstein's theory of relativity as it concerns the significance of time as related to human life.

The same film and discussion will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 4, at the Bill Rawlins home. The discussions are open to the public.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vaughn were recently in Kennewick, Wash. and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker.

Wheat League Annual Meet Due

The 30th annual convention of the Oregon Wheat Growers League will be held Dec. 5, 6 and 7 at the Memorial armory in Pendleton with major speakers slated for the opening day program.

A topic of current interest, "The Earth Satellite" will kickoff the initial session and two authorities will speak on the subject. Dr. Walter Kyke, director of the research institute at Linfield college will discuss the technical aspects of satellites at 10:15 Thursday morning and he will be followed by Dr. Frank Munk, professor of political science at Reed college who will discuss the international implications. Governor Robert D. Holmes will speak at 11:15 Thursday morning and his talk will be followed by a buffet luncheon in the armory.

The women's cake-baking contest will start at 10 a.m. Thursday and will be followed by a style show and tea at 3 o'clock.

Walter B. Garver, manager of the agriculture department of the U. S. chamber of commerce will speak at 1:15 Thursday, to complete the formal program and standing committee meetings will be held until Friday noon.

League president Raphael Raymond, Helix, will give the president's address after the Friday luncheon and Joe Spiruta, far east representative for the league will discuss market development activities in Japan, etc. The afternoon program will conclude with Judson E. Evans, U. S. department of agriculture, who will talk on moving surplus commodities.

The president's reception is set for 6:30 Friday followed by the annual banquet at 7:30 at the armory. Saturday morning there will be a business meeting, reports of committees and election of officers.

Union, Baker and Wallowa counties are hosts for the meeting.

(Continued on Page 8) late husband, Dick Wilkinson, and George Rugg. The banquet was served to about 125 persons by the women of Hope Lutheran church.

Wheatgrowers Ask

(Continued from Page 1) considerable amount of time discussing the newly proposed farm program and have asked the Oregon Wheatgrowers League to give an opportunity for everyone to fully understand the program with county groups to make their recommendation concerning this proposed legislation during the annual meeting of the Oregon Wheatgrowers League. A general assembly to discuss this program will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m., Dec. 5, during the League's annual meeting. Morrow county wheat farmers plan to meet that evening to decide on their recommendation.

Recommendations from the domestic wheat utilization committee, which is the ladies committee, asked that a more simplified name be given their group. They favored an accelerated advertising program for processed wheat and ask that a sample bar be set up so that people might see and taste prepared dishes from these products. They ask that the Oregon Wheatgrowers League compile a recipe book using wheat products. They favored a continuation of the Oregon Wheatgrowers League-sponsored cake contest, and ask that it be extended to cover all counties in Oregon.

The Morrow County Wheatgrowers were hosts at the noon luncheon which was served by the Lexington Grange home economics committee.
