Sally's thank-you letter speaks volumes and points up a well-known problem.

Children's tastes and sizes change so fast that it's practically impossible for well-meaning Santa Clauses to keep track of them — particularly when Santa lives thousands of miles away.

If this is your Christmas problem, here's a gift suggestion that will solve it for you. Send your favorite small-fry a Series E U. S. Savings Bond. It's a gift that's bound to be appropriate. It will increase in value and reflect your love and thoughtfulness for many years to come. And will be appreciated by child and parents alike.

Or, if your nieces and nephews and grandchildren are too numerous to make this practical, how about giving U. S. Savings Stamps? They're available at 10¢, 25¢ and up, at all post offices, along with free albums to keep them in.

Savings Bonds are easy to give... easy to buy. Just stop in at your Bank and ask for a Bond in any denomination you choose. Your shopping will take only minutes. Your Bonds will come in special gift envelopes. No need to tussle with fancy wrapping paper or bows.

Attention all Santa Clauses: Solve your Christmas shopping problems the easy and practical way by buying U. S. Savings Bonds today.
