Thanksgiving Day Sees Celebration Of 40th Anniversary

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Darst, 785 E. Ewald St., Salem, was the scene on Thanksgiving day, of a 40th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Carlson of Ione.

All of the Carlson's four children and families were present, including 12 grandchildren, two daughters, Mrs. John P. Darst of Salem and Mrs. Robert Hope of Eugene, and two sons, Clifford Carlson of Portland and Louis Carlson of Ione.

Victor Leonard Carlson and Julia Amanda Hagstrom were married at Portland, Oregon on November 25, 1917. After their marriage they moved to the wheat ranch at Ione, originally homesteaded by Mr. Carlson's father, Andrew Carlson when he came to this country from Sweden in 1882. Mr. Carlson has operated the ranch continuously since that time.

Future Homemakers Give Annual Tea for Mothers, Daughters

Seventy mothers and their daughters attended a Future Homemakers of America annual tea at the Hepner school home-making room Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Robert Ferguson of Hepner talked to the group about France, her native homeland, and made some interesting comparison of the homemaker in this country and in France.

Mrs. Edna Turner, Hepner primary teacher, showed slides and narrated her trip to Central America and the Panama Canal Zone. She took the trip last summer with Mrs. Sam Turner. It was sponsored by the National Education association. One of the purposes of the FHA is to acquire more knowledge of people in other lands.

Gordon Pratt, high school principal, led the group in Christmas songs accompanied by Jarfee Martin.

The attractive and artistic Christmas arrangements on the tea table and about the room were done by Shirley Van Winkle, Fern Albert and a committee of freshmen girls.

Joann Brosnan, FHA president, poured, and Phyllis Quackenbush, secretary, presided at the punch bowl. Students assisting about the room were Ruth Peterson, Wilma Bothwell Judy and Jeanne Collins, Judy Brinda, Carolyn Carter, Marlene Griffin, Sheryl Harris, Elaine Laird, Effie Lane, Doris Morris, Francine Moyer, Judy and Jeanne Schmidt, Mary Slocum, Bernice Thomson, Sandra Campbell, Norma Ferguson, Sherry Lindsay, Mary Shannon, Darlene Turner, Geraldine Swaggart, and Libby Van Scholack.

The tea was under the supervision of Mrs. Homer Hager, advisor for the FHA chapter.
