Hope Lutheran Church Holds Annual Meeting

After morning worship services, during which 14 adults and seven children were received into membership, and a dinner in the church basement, friends and members of Hope Lutheran church gathered for their monthly all-family recreational party, after which they assembled for their second annual meeting to elect officers and lay plans for the future.

This was the second adult membership class received into membership this year. After a thorough 10-week review of Scriptural teachings and a straight-forward presentation of the church's approach, anyone who desires is eligible for membership. With the second class 34 new members have been added this year.

Assembly of God Group Has Christmas Party Friday Night

About 45 persons attended a potluck supper and Christmas party held by the Assembly of God church at the Methodist church basement Friday, Dec. 13.

The table arranging and setting was directed by Mrs. Erling Storro, and decorations by Mrs. Ron Kinard, with helpers Erling Storro, Ron Kinard, Marie Pettyjohn, Norma Geyer, Dianne Geyer, Ronda Kinard, and Mrs. Willis Geyer.

The welcome committee consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Muggs Storro, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Pettyjohn, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnett.

A get acquainted time was enjoyed in which those present told their name, place of birth and occupation.

A drawing gift was received by Mrs. Paul Arbuckle. A sportsmanship award was received by Willis Geyer, also awards were presented to the persons whose names were drawn to work on the clean-up committee. Ten cent gifts were exchanged by all.

Joint Installation Held Saturday By Masonic Groups

Heppner lodge No. 69, AF&AM, and Heppner chapter No. 26, Royal Arch Masons, installed their new officers for 1958 at a public installation in the Masonic temple on Saturday evening, Dec. 14.

Installation was preceded by a turkey dinner prepared by the ladies of Ruth chapter No. 32, OES with Mrs. Dick Wilkinson, worthy matron, in charge.

The turkey dinner and joint installation of the officers of the Masonic bodies is a custom that began soon after the chartering of the Ruth chapter in the mid-1890s, and has been followed with few exceptions since that time. The Eastern Star officers are no longer installed in December, their election time having been changed to mid-year to coincide with that of the Grand Chapter.

Masonic officers installed by Frank S. Parker, installing officer, C. J. D. Bauman, installing marshal, and R. C. Wightman, installing chaplain, are: Marcel Jones, worshipful master; Roy Quackenbush, senior warden; Eugene Hall, junior warden; R. E. Rice, treasurer; Harold Becket, secretary; Howard Keithley, senior deacon; Kenneth Keeling, junior deacon; Joan Pfeiffer, senior steward; Jack Sumner, junior steward; Claude Graham, chaplain; Oliver Creswick, marshal; Marion Hayden, tyler; Hayden is the outgoing master. Mrs. Clarence C. Carmichael was organist.

Installing officer for the Royal Arch Masons was J. O. Turner with Paul Jones as installing marshal. The new officers are: Claude Graham, E.H.P.; Oliver Creswick, scribe; C.J.D. Bauman, treasurer; Loyal Parker, secretary; Roy Quackenbush, R.A.C. other officers to be installed at a later date are Leslie Grant, king; Dick Logan, C. of H.; Sam Holy-cross, master of 3rd veil; Clark Van Gasbeck, master of 2nd veil; Emile Rhee, master of 1st veil.

Catholic Church Has Annual Christmas Party Saturday

Members of St. Patrick's church enjoyed their annual Christmas party at the American Legion hall Saturday evening.

Rev. P. J. Gaire extended to the group the greetings of the Christmas Season and expressed his appreciation to the entire parish for their assistance during the year. For extraordinary service during the year, Rev. Gaire presented a poinsettia to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doherty; Mrs. E.E. Gonty, acting for Mr. Gonty, new president of Holy Name society, presented a poinsettia to Mr. Paul Koenig, outgoing president; and Mrs. Paul Koenig, new president of the Altar Society, presented a poinsettia to the outgoing president, Mrs. Wallace Wolff, and there was one and Karl Anderson, sentinel. Appointment of principal sojourner has not yet been confirmed and will be announced later.

for Miss Marguarite Glavey who was unable to be present.

The group presented Rev. Gaire a Christmas tree bearing coin decorations, Henry Rauch Jr. was the Santa Claus.

Rev. Leopold O'Riordan attended from Hermiston and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas I. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Penland and Mrs. Elaine S. George. The evening was spent in dancing and a buffet luncheon was served.

Mrs. James Monahan was chairman of the decoration committee and on the refreshment committee were John Williams, Paul Koenig, Ed Gonty and Paul Doherty.
