The bride's mother was dressed in blue lace with light blue accessories and she wore a corsage of white catalpa orchids. The room's mother wore navy blue with white accessories and a white Catalpa orchid corsage.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Janice Robertson of Forest Grove sang "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs C C Carmichael, Lexington who also played the wedding music.

At the reception which followed in the parish house, the red and white color scheme was carried out with the bride's table centered with a three tiered wedding cake which sat on a mirror with red and white bouvardia around it. The cake was topped with a cluster of red bouvardia and white carnations and on either side of the cake were silver candelabra.

Bouquets of red stock and white carnations adorned the fireplace mantle and piano.

Mrs P W Mahoney of Heppner and Mrs Stephen Thompson of Pendleton served the cake. Miss Leone Graham, aunt of the bride, and Mrs Mary Van Stevens of The Dalles poured and Mrs Corbett Green served the punch, from a table centered with a bouquet of red and white carnations and white stock.

Assisting about the room were Miss Meredith Thomson, Miss Joan Wright, Miss Janet Wright, Miss Shirley Kononen, Mrs John Pfeiffer, Mrs James Valentine, Mrs Roy Quackenbush, Mrs Jack Loyd, Mrs J G Thomson all of Heppner and Mrs William Anderson of Pendleton.

Mrs James Green of Arlington had charge of the guest book and Miss Judy Thomson of Pendleton and Mrs Herb Peterson of Ione were in charge of the gift table.

Rice sachets were passed by Miss Kim Valentine of Heppner and Miss Shannon Mahoney of Heppner and Miss Christine Anderson of Pendleton passed the groom's cake.

Mrs Walter Wright and Mrs Elmer Palmer had charge of the reception.

For traveling, on a honeymoon along the Oregon Coast, the bride wore a red wool sheath dress with a jacket trimmed with black fur collar, black accessories and her white orchid.

They will be at home at 2802 1/2 Spruce St, La Grande, where they are both attending Eastern Oregon College where the bride is a junior and the groom working for his Master Degree.

Phyllis Quackenbush Honored At Reception By Rainbow Girls

Ruth Assembly No 50 of Rainbow Girls honored Miss Phyllis Quackenbush, grand representative for Oregon to the State of North Carolina, with a reception at the I O O F hall in Heppner on Saturday, December 21. The grand chapter of Oregon appoints one Rainbow Girl to correspond with another Rainbow Girl in each state of the union. The reception was followed by the chapter's annual Snowball Formal, also held at the I O O F hall.

Introduced and escorted to the East at the reception were Mrs James Cartwright, mother adviser of the Umatilla chapter; Miss Pamela Bateman, grand representative to the state of Maine, of the Umatilla chapter; Mrs Harold Becket, sub-deputy for the Rainbow Girls in Oregon; and Miss Quackenbush.

Introduced were Miss Meredith Thomson, past grand representative to the state of Florida, and past worthy adviser, and Miss Barbara Warren, past worthy adviser.

The program consisted of a reading "Learning to Drive an Automobile" by Miss Sandra Jones; and an addenda summarizing the seven steps in Miss Quackenbush's Rainbow career from the time she was initiated until her appointment as grand representative. Taking part in the addenda were Misses Janice Beamer, Nancy Slocum, Sharon Case, Susan McQuarrie, Celia Boulden, Judy Cochell and Marlene Griffin, with Janice Martin at the piano. Miss Quackenbush was presented with a gift.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening with Mrs Howard Bryant acting as committee adviser and Miss Janice Beamer, chairman for the Rainbow Girls. Mrs L D Tibbles was committee adviser for decorations and Miss Judie Spaulding was chairman for the Rainbow Girls.

At the annual Snowball Formal following the reception, Miss Helen Graham was crowned Queen with Misses Nancy Slocum, Judy Cochell, and Sandra Jones selected Princesses. These girls are chosen for their year's work in the chapter and for attendance at the meetings.

Lyle Jensen, who is attending Molar's Barber College in Portland, was at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash for Christmas Day. Pat Baseel of St. Helen's was also a guest at the Nash home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Green and family spent Christmas at Union with relatives.
