With the Wranglers

by John Newman

At the meeting of the program planning committee, Archie Munkers brought up a very good idea (credited to Dimples) to raise funds to help finish the club grounds. Knowing the conservative nature of most people—they save things they never use any more because they are too good to throw away. Why not have an auction sale? It might be something someone else could use. The committee is now looking for a place where these articles might be stored till sale date should the club approve.

Since we are exchanging play days with the Sage Riders they suggested we invite Arlington and Spray to join us on these two days. Wouldn't it be fun? Perhaps lucrative as well.

These are only two of the things we will hear about if we feel like listening, after the potluck Tuesday night, Feb 3, 6 p m at the Wranglers club house.
