

Boardman Egg Hunt Attracts 75

By MARY LEE MARLOW
75 children participated in the annual Easter Egg hunt on the school grounds Saturday. The Tillicum club sponsored the affair. Davy and Janelle Skoubo, son and daughter of Mr and Mrs Edward Skoubo had the honor of finding the gold eggs. Davy in the school age group, and Janelle in the pre-school group. This was an unusual occurrence, since there were 32 dozen eggs hid on the grounds, and only one gold egg in each group. Silver eggs were found by Ilene Baker for the pre-school, and Jeanette Hilgel in the school group. Rickie partlow was winner of the prize for finding the most eggs in the pre-school, and tying for low were Pam and Casey Kuhn, and Ronnie and Randy Baker. In the school group Alan

Over The Tee Cup

By Jackie Labhart

Another week has passed and my Tea pot has been simmering slowly, awaiting our weekly tete a tete over the Tee Cup. So now that the cup is full again (I wish I could fill the ones on the courses as easily as this one) let's see what the tea leaves have to say.

Fourteen loquacious lasses "turned out" for our second ladies day of the season. (But most of us should have "turned in" ... our clubs that is). The fearless fourteen who battled a bitter, biting, blustery north wind most of the morning were Dolores McDowell, Ruth Van Winkle, Cathy Collins, Cork Norene, Kay Robinson, Jan Downen, Betty Brown, Dee Gribble, Marie McQuarrie, Bonnie Mattoon Vivian Williams Shirley Loyd, Lucille Peck and this half frozen female. (This was Cathy's first ladies day, as she and her husband Bud, just joined our golfing group).

Naturally, Dee shot low score for the day...a 46 mind you!...

critical illness of their son, Pfc Donald Gillespie. They report him slightly improved.

Mr and Mrs Ernest Wilkinson visited at the home of Miss Jean Scott last week on their way from British Columbia to Fairview, where they will take over a church. They are with the Village Missions.

Mrs Elvin Ely was called to La Grande last Thursday by the illness of her grandson, Jerry Lilly, 17 month old son of Mr and Mrs Eldon Lilly, who has been in a hospital there for the past week. Janet and Jay Lilly returned home with Mrs Ely Saturday and will remain here this week.

Ivan Kress was a patient in the Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston three days last week with the flu.

Martin Shattuck, student at Multnomah School of the Bible in Portland, spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr and Mrs Lowell Shattuck.

Mr and Mrs Earl Briggs were hosts for an Easter dinner at their home Sunday. Guests were Mr and Mrs Ray Brown and Mr and Mrs Walt Wyss.

and won the prize of a miniature loving cup inscribed "Best Golfer in the World." She also had the longest drive on the pre-selected hole for the day. Shirley and Marie tied for the lowest number of strokes on the hidden hole, which was No 1. (And to think I drove three balls in the creek before I ever got teed off... and don't think I wasn't.)

While crossing the planks over the swamp, one of our more diminutive damsels was talking to her threesome in back, instead of keeping her feet on track... need I say more? But I will, because it was no funny seeing the golf cart stay secure on the plank while she fell DOWN in to the slimy swamp.

OBSCURE OBSERVATIONS: Bonnie with brand new clubs... Betty in insulated underwear... only one golfing grandmother (Dolores) ... John Williams down to see Vivian ... Cork in the mud... Marie playing hooky from the store... Ruth wearing Eskimo boots... and Shirley with a three legged tee.

We had quite a gallery on the No 1 green... Some men were "Working on the railroad, to pass the time of day. Working on the railroad, about fifty feet away. Can't you hear their comments flowing, as we approached the green. Can't you hear their chuckles growing, for pars were few and far between." (My apologies to the original song).

Dee has asked that all the women turn in their scores to her every time they play, so she can figure handicaps. We have been invited to the Pendleton Country Club for a four-way tournament May 15, and they need our handicaps a few weeks early. (Imagine, us in a tournament!)

All the men are to turn their scores into Larry Downen as they would like to get the spring tournament started as soon as possible.

ATTENTION IONE WOMEN: Where are you? Come join us next Tuesday morning Polly, Doreen, Suzanne, Edris, Rose, Roberta, and anyone else who can hold a golf club.

I saw Larry Downen and Gordon Pratt measuring the new fairways Saturday... shouldn't be too long before they are ready for play. (the fairways that is)

Overheard that Gretchen and Bob Penland have joined the ranks of our weekend golfers... and that Harlan McCurdy finally talked his wife Donna into taking golf lessons... that Harlan, Lowell Gribble, Paul Koenig, and John Williams can't seem to repel the lure of the links (don't imagine their trying too hard)... that Ruth Van Winkle received some expert male advice while playing the course Saturday with Ned Sweek and Larry Downen.

That about does it for this week, so until next tee time, good golfing.
