CAPITAL PARADE

(Continued from page 2) They made 88 arrests for drunken driving and 56 for reckless driving. ENTERS POLITICS GENTLY Thomas G Wright, Jr administrative assistant and publicity chief to governor Robert D Holmes will be doing some of the same for himself at the next school election. He is entering politics the nonpartisan way, by announcing his candidacy for school board member.

Democrats who so far are leading in registration in Marion County need candidates who have well-known names. Wright, you may have guessed is a Democrat who with his wife Marguerite have held positions on the Oregon Statesman in news and editorial capacities during the past 10 years. It is easy to vision another Democratic husband and wife team in the Oregon Legislature.
