Mrs. Clary Honored At Tea By OEA

Mrs. Marie Clary, who is retiring from teaching at the end of this year, was honored by the OEA with a surprise tea Monday at the multipurpose room of the grade school.

Representatives from some of her many classes who were present were, Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, Mrs. Gene Hall, Mrs. Vern Evans, Tom Hughes, Ed Groshens, Nelson Connor, Randall Peterson, Ed Gunderson Lyle Jensen and Raymond French. Other guests attending were Jack Flug, Ed Dick, Harlan McCurdy and Mrs. Velma Glass.

Mrs. Clary was presented with a retired teachers pin and a gift of two pieces of luggage.

Tea and beautifully decorated cake were served. The cake was inscribed, In Honor of Your Service to Education.

Elks Ladies Night Held Thursday

At the Ladies' night held at the Elks lodge on Thursday there were eight tables of bridge and six tables of pinocle in play.

High score in pinocle was won by Mrs. Harley Young and second by Miss Joan Wright. Mrs. L. E. Dick Jr. won first prize in bridge and Mrs. Allen Case second. The door prize went to Mrs. F. B. Nickerson.

Hostesses were Mrs. William Sowell, Mrs. William Glennie, Mrs. William Scrivner, Mrs. Lionel Huston, Mrs. Wayne Brock and Mrs. Gene Orwick with Mrs. Marshall Lovgren and Mrs. Bob Flatt as co-chairmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Fetsch, Mrs. John Hartman, Mrs. Harlan McCurdy, Jr. and Henry Rauch spent Friday in Portland.

SPRING TEA GIVEN SATURDAY BY HEPPNER MOTHERS CLUB

Friends and members enjoyed a delightful tea given by the Mothers' club Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wallace H. Wolff who was general chairman.

Prelude music was played on a charming old-fashioned player piano.

Mr. Victor L. Kreimeyer, chairman of the program committee, extended the welcome and introduced Mrs. Norman D. Peters, mistress of ceremonies, who announced the numbers in verse composed by herself.

The program numbers were: A piano solo, "Brownies" by Joan Stockard; Accordion solos, "The Lazy Snail" and "Oompah-pah Waltz" by Kit Anderson; A comedy skit, "The Sack" by Tamara Smith and Joan Stockard; Mrs. Harry M. Bongers introduced the outgoing officers, Mrs. Stanley Holm, president, Mrs. Ray Smith, vice president, Mrs. Elmer Schmidt, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Wallace Wolff, program chairman; A piano solo "Neptune" by Vicki Kreimeyer; Two vocal solos, "Four Leaf Clover" and "That Wonderful Mother of Mine" by Elaine Laird; A tumbling act by Diana Fulleton.

Mrs. Roderick K. Murray introduced the new officers for the coming year: Mrs. Elmer Schmidt president; Mrs. Norman D. Peters, vice president, is leaving Heppner and will have to be replaced as an officer; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ralph L. Richmond; program chairman, Mrs. Nels C. Anderson; A reading "The Three Little Indians" by Jean Stockard; A piano duet, "The Birch Canoe" by Jean and Judy Schmidt.

Gifts were presented to two departing members, Mrs. Norman D. Peters and Mrs. Merlin Zier. Gifts were also presented to four past presidents: Mrs. Roice Fulleton received a quilt embroidered with the names of her members; Mrs. L. L. Robbins and Mrs. Nels C. Anderson received tablecloths embroidered with the names of their members and Mrs. Stanley Holm received a scrapbook of her year in office.

Mrs. Kreimeyer was assisted on the program committee by Mrs. Norman D. Peters, Mrs. Harry Bongers and Mrs. Roderick K. Murray.

Mrs. Nels C. Anderson and Mrs. Elmer Schmidt were in charge of refreshments and were assisted by Mrs. Stanley Holm, Mrs. Kenneth Keeling and Mrs. Harry Bongers in arranging the outstanding decorations. May Baskets of lilacs greeted the guests at the entrance gate. Indoors, where the program was presented, the rooms were profuse with spring bouquets.

On the lawn where refreshments were served in a natural setting of flowers individual tea tables were joined by streamers from a colorful Maypole. Small May Baskets adorned each table and beautiful floral arrangements centered the white linen cloths of the larger tables from which the refreshments were served.
