Hamm-Hughes Vows Repeated Monday At Methodist Church

A candlelight ceremony read by Rev. Lester Boulden in the Methodist church at 8 pm Monday, June 2, united in marriage Miss Margaret Jean Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Hughes, and Marion Thomas Hamm of North Carolina.

The church was beautifully decorated with pink peonies and snapdragons. Mrs. Fred Gimbel at the organ played "Because" and accompanied Mrs. Lester Boulden as she sang "O Perfect Love".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a street length white sheath dress of nylon lace over taffeta and carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. Mrs. Colleen Bailey, the honor attendant, wore a black and white cotton knit suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of white orchids. Miss Sheryl Harris lit the candles.

Best man was Marcel Talbot from New Hampshire.

The mother of the bride wore a gray gown with pink accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations. The grandmothers, Mrs. N. D. Bailey and Mrs. Grace Hughes, both of Heppner, were dressed in Navy blue and wore corsages of pink carnations.

At the reception in the church parlors, following the ceremony, the grandmothers poured tea and coffee. Mrs. Mike Saling presided at the punch bowl. After the bride and groom had cut the traditional first slice, Mrs. Creston Robinson and Mrs. Matt Hughes served the beautiful three-tiered cake. Mrs. Larry Huffman was in charge of the guest book.

The bride graduated from Heppner high school with the class of 1958. The groom is with the United States Air Force, stationed at Condon. The couple will make their home in Heppner.
