Boardman Church Scene of Houston-Potts Wedding

By MARY LEE MARLOW

Miss Marie Louise Potts, daughter of Mr and Mrs Charles Leo Potts of Boardman, became the bride of Delbert Gene Houston, son of Mr and Mrs Ernest C Houston of LaGrande, in a double ring ceremony at 3 pm June 28, at the Community church. The candlelight service was performed by Merrill E Shaw, missionary pastor of the church, before the altar decorated with baskets of pink and yellow gladioli.

Mrs John Partlow sang "I Love You, Truly" and "Wedding Prayer", accompanied by Mrs Merrill Shaw, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a ballerina length gown of white nylon acetate lace, fashioned with long sleeves and a long moulded bodice, with scalloped neckline, square in back, with a huge butterfly bow at the waistline. It had a full gathered skirt, with pleated nylon net insert in front, and a ruffled net under-slip, fully lined with taffeta. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a headband of seed pearls and rhinestones, which was borrowed from her cousin, Mrs Ted Shaffer of Biloxi, Tex, who wore it at her wedding three years ago. Something old were her pearl earrings, something new her pearl necklace, a gift from the groom. She carried a blue handkerchief and a lavender orchid on a white bible.

Miss Irene Potts was her sister's maid of honor and wore a ballerina length frock of blue taffeta. She carried a nosegay of Shasta daisies, Chrysanthemums and gladioli. Miss Connie Baker and Miss Barbara Ganzenbein were bridesmaids, and wore identical frocks of pink and yellow taffeta, and carried carnation nosegays.

Susan Partlow and Carolyn Baker were the candlelighters and wore green taffeta frocks.

Susie Foster cousin of the bride, of The Dalles was flower girl, and Larry Romine nephew of the groom, of LaGrande was ring bearer.

David Romine, nephew of the groom, of LaGrande was best man, and ushers were Dick Hoskins and Orville Pellett, brother-in-law of the groom, both of LaGrande.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the grange hall, with about 80 people attending. The beautiful four-tiered cake, topped with bridal figurines, was made by Mrs Lafie Foster of The Dalles cousin of the bride. After the first piece of cake was cut by the couple it was cut and served by Mrs George Ramsey of The Dalles, cousin of the bride. Mrs Dayne Coch-enour of The Dalles, cousin of the bride, poured the coffee, and Mrs David Romine of LaGrande served the punch. In charge of the reception were Mrs Elvin Ely, Mrs Earl Briggs, Mrs Guy Ferguson Mrs Seth Russell and Mrs Elmer Messenger.

Mrs Lafie Foster of The Dalles and Mrs William Weber of Sunnyside, Wash were in charge of the gift table, and Mrs Orville Pellett, sister of the groom, of LaGrande had the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs Potts wore a pale blue and pink print dress with white hat and accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue and white dacron dress and white hat. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

The bride is a graduate of Boardman high school and attended EOCE at LaGrande. The groom attended LaGrande high school. After a trip to coastal points they are living at 1415 "U" avenue in LaGrande.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs Ida Potts of Friendswood, Tex, grandmother of the bride; Mrs L M Potts, great aunt of the bride, Mr and Mrs Lafie Foster, Mr and Mrs George Ramsey, Mr and Mrs Dayne Coch-enour, Mr and Mrs Harlin Coch-enour, and Kathryn, David and Steven, all of The Dalles; Mr and Mrs William Weber of Sunnyside, Wash, cousins of the bride; Mr and Mrs Vern Coch-enour and David of Lyle, Wash; Mike Romine of Halfway; Mr and Mrs Richard Hoskins, Mr and Mrs David Romine, Mr and Mrs Oliver Romine, Mr and Mrs Orville Pellett, Mr and Mrs Eldon Lilly and Janet and Jay, and Mrs Esther Emmons, all of LaGrande; and Mrs Larry Thorpe and JoAnn of Hermiston.
