

Children's Pictures to be Taken Free For Publication

Thursday, July 24 is the big day for the picture taking of your youngsters! The Gazette-Times is having pictures taken of all children who are brought by their parents or other guardian to the Heppner Hotel between 10 am and 6 pm absolutely free of charge.

The Gazette-Times wants a picture of your child to print in its forthcoming feature, "Citizens of Tomorrow," a series of photographic studies of local children. The more we get the better the feature will be so the cooperation of mothers and fathers is urged.

It often seems to parents that children are little one minute and are grown up the next, so fast does a child's growing stage pass. Here is a splendid opportunity to catch a likeness of your child or children at the present stage for the pleasure you will get out of it in future years and for the pleasure you will enjoy in seeing it in print. You will want to clip it from this, your hometown newspaper, and preserve it for the youngster when he or she grows up.

There is absolutely no charge or obligation for taking the pictures. Parents don't even have to be a subscriber to the Gazette.

Times nor even a reader. You do not have to purchase pictures either, though you may obtain additional prints by arranging direct with the studio representative if you want them. That is entirely up to you.

Giants Winners in First Half of Little League Play

The Giants won the first half schedule with a 29-4 victory over the Indians in a make up game played Friday. This gave the Giants a 6-3 record, with the Dodgers and Braves running a close second with a 5-4 record, and the Indians trailing with a 2-7 record to wind up an exciting first half.

The coaches of the four teams have selected an all-star team consisting of four outstanding players from each team. A token of recognition will be presented them, also they will play practice games with teams of the surrounding area.

The Giants started things off in the second half of play when they edged the Indians 11-8 in a game Wednesday. Then Thursday saw the Braves squeeze by the Dodgers in a thrilling 7-6 victory.

On Monday the Indians were on the warpath, handing the Braves a 13-12 defeat. The Indians built up a 12-4 lead in the third inning and held on as the Braves tried to close the gap.

The Dodgers proved to be more than the Giants could handle Tuesday as they won by a 14-6 score. Dodger pitcher Mike Koenig went all the way while the Giants started Duane Geyer, who was relieved by Sherrill McDonald in the first inning and finished the game.

The first four games in the second half of play have shown much improved players, both in fielding and batting, which should make for quite a battle for first place. Right now the four teams are tied for first place with a one and one record.

Mr and Mrs Addison McCoy and two sons of Hood River visited Friday with their niece and family, Mr and Mrs Loyd Burkenbine.

FIRST OCEAN BARGE to load out of the Morrow County Grain Growers Hogue-Warner dock at Paterson ferry was filled with 65,000 bushels of county wheat last week. The barge will hold about 80,000 bushels but because of water conditions was not completely filled. The big shipment aided local storage conditions for one of the county's greatest crops. (GT Photo)

Feed Analysis Service is Offered

Pendleton Grain Growers has announced a feed analysis service available to farmers of Eastern Oregon. According to James Hill, Jr, general manager of Pendleton Grain Growers, the next nearest laboratory handling feed analysis is located in Portland.

The Pendleton service provides accurate measurement of the percentage of fat, fiber, ash, protein, Vitamin A and PH factor of feeds and feedstuffs. "No longer will a farmer have to guess at the value of his hay and grain," points out Hill. "Now he'll be able to find out exactly the nutrition content and base his feed price accordingly. It can be done quickly, easily and without a lot of expense. Feed buyers, likewise, will be assured of guaranteed contents."

Present Highway 30 To be Part of New Interstate System

Oregon is assured of full participation in the new interstate highway system. Al Ullman announced today. According to information Ullman received, the newly designated interstate highway 80 N will cross Eastern Oregon and terminate in Portland. The original plan was to link this area by a feeder route rather than a main artery in the new interstate system. Early last year, Ullman protested this arrangement and called for a north and south designation, to assure Eastern Oregon full participation in the interstate highway system.

The newly accepted proposal calls for a transcontinental highway to be designated Highway 80 from New York to San Francisco with 80's turning south near Big Springs, Nebraska and terminating in Denver, Colorado. Highway 80 N turns north near Echo Junction, Utah (about 40 miles northeast of Salt Lake City) and continues to Portland through Baker, LaGrande, Pendleton, The Dalles and Hood River.

"I believe this new designation will be of great benefit to Eastern Oregon," said the second district congressman. "It will insure to us all the benefits of being a part of the great new interstate highway system. Had this change in designation not been made, we would have had branch line status with all the disabilities inherent in that position."

Representative Ullman commended the Oregon State Highway Department for their fine cooperation in obtaining this changed designation. The department had also strongly protested the original branch line plan.
