Over The Tee Cup

By JACKIE LABHART

It's just too hot to imbibe much in the ingredients of the tea cup, so therefore the sum and substance of this column will be fairly diluted this week. (And anyway with all our golfers improving steadily, it's hard to see many goofy games any- more.)

Even tho' most of us started playing at 6:30 Tuesday morning for our weekly ladies day competition; the eleven eager women soon became eleven melting maidens before the nine holes were finished. The weather may have been torrid, but some of our shots weren't so hot. . . altho' five of us managed to shoot in the low forties. Those playing were Meg Murray, Dee Gribble, Arolene Laird, Marie McQuarrie, Shirley Loyd, Hazel Mahoney, Delores McDowell, Kay Anderson, Coramae Ferguson, and Kay Robinson.

Dee won a new golf ball for the lowest gross score (42), and I had the least number of putts for the nine holes (12), and I also luckily made the drive closest to the pin on No 3, so came

Michael Rowell of Pendleton is visiting his grandparents, Mr and Mrs Cleo Drake.

Lyle Kincaid left Monday for Portland to visit relatives. He will also attend camp Easter Seal at Lakeside for a week.

Mr and Mrs Bill Rietmann and son visited relatives in Arlington Sunday.

Mr and Mrs Henry Buschke and sons of Los Angeles were dinner guests at the Mabel Cotter home Saturday. The Buschkes left for their home Sunday after assisting his father, Ed Buschke with the harvest at Morgan.

home with two nice golf balls. (Talked to Kay Anderson that afternoon and it may be she had the longest drive tho' for she played around after all of us had finished and she didn't mark her drive, but she said it was fairly near the green.)

Thought for sure Kay Robinson was shot when she stepped right on a snake at the No 9 tee. Now I have heard blood curdling screams, but never one to equal this ear piercing, earth shattering one. Need I say she was certainly "all shook up".

WANTED: The person who has been breaking the lock on our green tee box. We need that change for future course improvements, so why don't you change your course and it will be an improvement too.

I WONDER. . . if John Williams made a "short" trip to "Bermuda" . . . where the Ione gals were ladies day. . . if Phil Mahoney is sorry he shot a 39 Sunday and beat Hazel by one stroke. . . if Cathy and Bud Collins played any golf on their trip. . . if the golfing bug has infected Raymond Ferguson too. Until next week, remember old golfers never die, they just loose their grip.
