Colorful Hawaiian Luau Dessert Bridge Given Wednesday

The multipurpose room of the grade school was the scene last Wednesday evening for a Luau dessert bridge party.

Approximately 70 guests enjoyed a candlelight atmosphere made Hawaiian by beach centerpieces, driftwood, sea shells, leis and a profusion of gay flowers. Soft music of the Islands was interpreted in her native hula dance by Miss Lei Uemura of Hilo, Hawaii, as she presented five numbers including comedy, romance, and the Hawaiian War Chant.

Prizes of green tropical plants were won by Mrs Phillip Blakney, first; Mrs Les Wyman, second; Mrs Marshall Lovgren, third and Mrs Charles Collins, low. Door prizes went to Mrs Dick Meador and Mrs James Driscoll.

Assisting the hostesses and wearing native costumes were Miss Judy Collins and Miss Carolyn McDaniel.

The hostesses, dressed in colorful Muu Muus, were Mrs William Collins, Mrs William Barratt, Mrs Robert Jones, Mrs Rod Murray, Mrs Robert Abrams and Mrs Wallace Wolff.

TUESDAY and Wednesday are Family Nights at the Star Theater. Always a good program.

PARENT-ANDERSON WEDDING EVENT OF FRIDAY AT METHODIST CHURCH

At a double ring, candlelight ceremony Miss Nancy Kay Anderson, daughter of Mr and Mrs C Ervin Anderson and Albert Leon Parent, son of Mr and Mrs Orville Parent of Corpus Christi, Texas were united in marriage at the Heppner Methodist church Friday evening, August 1. Rev Lester Boulden officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace over taffeta princess style strapless gown with matching jacket and bouffant skirt, waltz length. Her fingertip nylon illusion veil was held in place by a bandeau of pearl flowers with sprays of petal trim. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and a white orchid.

Miss Adelia Anderson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a street length sheath dress of aqua shadow stripe taffeta with a cummerbund and sash. She carried a nosegay of white snowflake dahlias with ribbons to match her dress.

Miss Carol Anderson, sister of the bride and Miss Mary Evelyn Tucker, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses identical to the maid of honor and the attendants wore aqua net head pieces held in place by a ribboned head band.

Walt Speer of Monmouth was best man and ushers were Delbert Piper and Ed Groshens of Heppner.

Oliver Creswick sang "Oh Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Mrs Vic Kreimeyer at the organ, who also played the wedding music.

The church was decorated with two large baskets of white gladioli, snowflake dahlias and baby breath.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Anderson home. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of wedding cake, it was served by Mrs Ben Anderson, great aunt of the bride and Mrs Charlie Beckett. Mrs Walter Beckett poured and Mrs Terry Blevins presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs Roger Palmer had charge of the gift table and Miss Judy Thompson of Pendleton was in charge of the guest book.

Mrs Elmer Palmer had charge of the reception and was assisted by Mrs Archie Padberg and Mrs J W Farra.

Tom Gonty passed the groom's cake and Doug Gonty the rice bags.

The bride's mother wore a blue and white crepe sheer dress with a navy blue linen jacket with white accessories and a white rosebud corsage. Mrs E E Gonty, who represented the groom's mother, wore a dusty rose faille dress with black accessories and a white rosebud corsage.

For going away the bride chose a beige sheath dress and matching jacket with brown trim and she wore the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is employed at the LaGrande branch of the First National Bank of Oregon and the groom is a senior at Eastern Oregon college.

After a trip to the Oregon coast the couple will be at home at 1306 N Ave in LaGrande.

IN THE SADDLE . . . With The Wranglers

By JOHN NEWMAN

Last night's meeting was the kind we should have all the time. Interest enough to voice your likes and dislikes. It is your club, if you don't take an interest in it you have no right to expect it to improve.

If there is something you don't like find out why and do it at the first meeting, don't waste a whole summer. That is a mistake that can't be corrected.

Rod Murray will take over the next meeting and I am sure he will welcome your active interest.

You have a grounds that can be a delight to the entire horse loving community but not with "I'm sure not going to work at it" attitude. Such an attitude robs the community of a great deal, but you that harbor such are the greatest losers. Those who give freely of their time get more from it than you know. You can never find out younger—procrastinate if you like it is your loss.

We have a pretty good sized job getting some new mangers built for the horse show. Hutch said he would do it so now is a good time to give him a hand and I do mean now. Three weeks can slip by awfully quick.

We have a dressup parade coming up the 16th, along about 8 pm. The queen is to receive her crown. The Chamber of Commerce takes care of that, but the parade is our baby. So let's get with it and put on one befitting a queen. Then we can all be her guests at her ball.

The roping club is putting on a little practice show this Saturday night, free to all who care to watch. Costs you five bucks if you care to participate.

Whether you dance or not it will be something to watch while waiting for the dance to start. I hear they mean to start immediately after the lights are turned on, about 8:00 pm. Since the killowatts are to be paid from the jackpots, you know the winners are not in favor of any wasted candle power.

I want to thank the club for their misplaced confidence. I have enjoyed working with you and the pleasure with the new grounds will be mine long after I am forgotten.

Thanks a million folks. My leaving is my loss, not yours. I'll be seeing you around till after the Fair.

Mrs Douglas Ogletree of Brookings, a former teacher in the Heppner grade school, is visiting in the Heppner area this week. She is accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs Vern Bell and family. Phone your news items to 6-9228.

An OPEN LETTER to the people of Portland, MAINE

In 1845, two men flipped a coin in a tiny town in the wilderness Oregon Territory. Francis Pettygrove, from Portland, Maine, won the toss, and the community on the banks of the Willamette (pronounced wil-lam'-et) River became Portland. If Amos Lovejoy had won, it would have been Boston, and who knows what might have happened to us then!

Twenty years later, a group in Portland, Oregon, applied for the first national bank charter on the Pacific Coast. They asked for the name "First National Bank of Oregon," but for some reason the charter came back from Washington, D. C., reading "First National Bank of Portland." (In 1865, with Pony Express communication, Oregonians settled for what they got. It took years to conduct a simple discussion!)

We're writing you in our sister city across the nation to let you know that we still like the name you loaned our state's largest city and our bank. However, from now on, we will be known as "First National Bank of Oregon," the name we asked for 93 years ago.

There are many good reasons for getting back to basic principles, and using the name "of Oregon" along with "First National Bank." For example, the new name best describes the kind of bank service we are giving... real, genuine statewide service, with 77 banking offices in Oregon communities. This statewide service is really practical. Wherever a customer of ours goes in Oregon... on vacation, business trips, or visiting cousins... there's a convenient branch of his bank nearby, ready to give the same excellent, helpful service he gets at home.

Hope you in Portland, Maine, like our new name as much as we do. As we said before, the name "Oregon" fits our statewide banking service best. We're sure you will understand.

Best regards,
The First National Bank of Oregon

OPEN LETTER TO EVERYBODY ELSE: It's really official. It's a point of pride with First National Bank of Oregon, as it has been since 1865, to bring you the best, most convenient bank service you could find anywhere in the world.
