

District Director Named For "Make it With Wool" Contest

Girls in this area can obtain entry blanks for the Oregon section of the "Make It Yourself With Wool" contest directly from Mrs Clint Lewis, contest director for Morrow and Umatilla counties, Singer Sewing Center, Pendleton Woolen Mills, Mrs Dick Wilkenson, Heppner, and Mrs Robert Hoskins, Ione.

Mrs Clint Lewis says that the contest, which is sponsored by the Wool Bureau and the Oregon Wool Growers Auxillary is open to all girls between 14 and 22. There are numerous district, state and national prizes which include scholarships, U S savings bonds, Singer Sewing machines, and a two-week trip to Europe for the national grand prize winners in the junior and senior divisions. The purpose of the contest is educational, to encourage home sewing and to show young girls how easy it is to sew with wool.

Girls may enter at any time between now and Oct 1, 1958. The district finals will be held at Pendleton, Oct 25, 1958 in the Vert Memorial. State finals will be held in Portland, Oregon, Nov 15, 1958. Meier and Frank is going to sponsor the style show, the United States National Bank of Portland is going to sponsor the transportation. The national finals will take place in Portland, Oregon, next January during the annual convention of the National Wool Growers Association. State winners receive a free trip to the finals provided by the F W Woolworth Co.

Contestants compete in one of three divisions: Junior, for girls between the ages of 14 and 17; Senior, for girls 18 to 22 inclusive, and Sub-deb, for girls 13 to 16. Class to enter is determined by age on Dec 1, 1958. The Sub-deb division will have greater emphasis this year and girls in this division will receive a larger number of prizes than ever before. The 19 participating states include Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

Donors of prizes include Claus Cutlery Co, Coats and Clark, Inc, John Dritz and Sons, McCall's Patterns, Singer Sewing Machine Co, Simplicity Patterns, and the Woolite Co. Mills contributing awards are Dorman Mills, Forstmann Woolen Co, Sag-No-Mor Jersey by Wyner, Standard Felt Co, and Strathmore Mills.

Mrs Lewis is offering a special prize to the girl in each division that sends in her completed entry blank first.

Monument News

Mrs Lydia Capon and Robert Gertson exchanged marriage vows at the Catholic church in Portland, Tuesday August 5. The reception was held at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs Sam Reichen. Mrs Gus Strecker of Spray was matron of honor. Mr and Mrs Stanley Boyer of Monument were wedding guests.

The couple will make their home at the Capon ranch while teaching school in Monument.

WHAT'S DOING

D. A. Short, your Telephone Manager for Heppner

Over the years you've come to expect your phone calls to go through swiftly and smoothly. To keep your service dependable, we make sure our equipment's working well all along the line. And we've developed lots of ways to head off trouble before it starts. For instance, in the maintenance center above, a special line tester checks thousands of lines in just one hour. It lets us know if anything needs fixing. And this is just one of many testers, alarms and trouble-spotters that our people use. In town and out in the country, we guard your service at all times with watchful eyes.

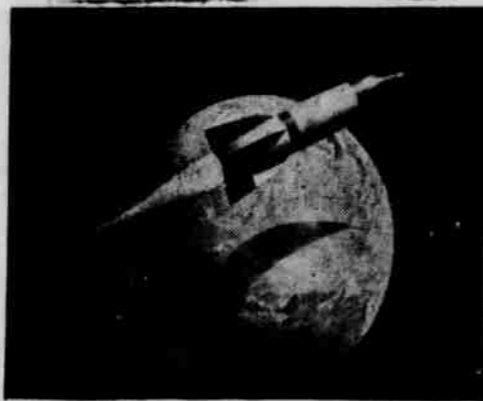

LET'S GO TO THE FAIR AND RODEO

The annual Morrow County Fair and Rodeo being held in Heppner August 26 through August 31 is the culmination of a lot of work by a lot of people. The Fair Board this year has really gone all out to insure a good program for us all. There are excellent exhibits to be found everywhere and the program of entertainment that is being presented is one of the best in years. By the way, don't fail to see the exhibits offered by the 4-H and F F A young men and women.

ON THE FARM

AND AT THE CONFERENCE TABLE

You don't need anyone to tell you our country needs to strengthen its Peace Power. You're reminded of it every time you open your newspaper. And just looking at the children brings it home to you all the more.

But maybe you think... "I'm just one person. How could I possibly strengthen the country?" You can help. And help yourself at the same time... by saving with U.S. Savings Bonds. You see, peace costs money. Money for many different things: To help us keep the peace, through industrial and military strength. To make it lasting for the future, through science and education. And, most important, it takes money saved by individuals. Your Savings Bonds, as a direct investment in your country, make you a partner in the job of strengthening America's Peace Power.

Think it over. Are you buying as many as you might?
