Star Mold Will Be A Menu Hit

Let your menu be in keeping with modern streamlined living and make a star mold of unflavored gelatine, tomato juice and plentiful canned grapefruit juice. The gelatine combines the tomato and grapefruit flavors without introducing any of its own. Garnish the star mold with lettuce and plump tart canned grapefruit sections so rich in vitamin C like their fresh counterpart. At serving-time you will have a salad that is colorful and delightfully refreshing.

Star Mold

- | | |
|---|------------------------------------|
| 2 envelopes unflavored gelatine | 3 whole cloves |
| 1 1/2 cups canned grapefruit juice, divided | 1 bay leaf |
| 2 1/2 cups tomato juice | 1/2 cup chopped celery with leaves |
| 1 onion slice | 1/2 teaspoon salt |
| 2 peppercorns | 1 teaspoon sugar |

Sprinkle gelatine on 1 cup of the grapefruit juice to soften; reserve. Combine tomato juice, onion slice, peppercorns, cloves, bay leaf and celery in saucepan. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat and cover; simmer 15 minutes. Remove from heat; strain. Add softened gelatin and stir until thoroughly dissolved. Stir in remaining 1/2 cup grapefruit juice. Pour into a 4-cup mold or star mold; chill until firm. Unmold on salad greens; garnish with canned grapefruit sections. YIELD: 6 servings.

Over The Tee Cup

By Jackie Labhart

Due to a hurried trip to the beach I once again missed the golfing activities during the past week, but due to the "grapevine" and the "Dee partie line" I will be able to impart to you a little golfing chatter.

Playing in the two-ball four-some Sunday afternoon were partners Dee Gribble and Jimmy Driscoll, Hazel Mahoney and Clint McQuarrie, Beverly Gunderson and Phil Mahoney, Walt Jacobs and Bobbie Driscoll, Eddie Gunderson and Kay Robinson, Lowell Gribble and Doreen Jacobs and Marie McQuarrie and Ned Sweek. Those playing without female partners were Pete Cannon, Judge Carmichael, and Harlan McCurdy.

Hazel and Clint shot low gross score of a sizzling 39 and they also won a new golf ball for having the most pars on their score card. Walt and Bobbie were closest to the pin with their drive on the No 3 hole and Eddie and Kay had the lowest score on the hidden hole, which was No 6. (They must have been practically unconscious, for they birdied it.) Bev and Phil (who were in nothing but trouble most of the day) shot the highest gross score.

In the ladies day competition Tuesday, new golf balls were won by Hazel Mahoney for the most 3's on her score card, Dee Gribble most four's and Jan Downen the most five's. (Yes, Jan Downen, she just couldn't stay away; California may have lots of things to offer, but nothing like the friendly people and the wonderful little golf course in Heppner.) Bobbie Driscoll won for her approach shot into the "bullseye" on No 8, (it's too complicated to explain); and Dee shot low gross of 43 for the nine holes. Other women playing were Kay Robinson, Velma Glass, Beverly Gunderson, and Hester Creswick.

OVERHEARD: Judge Carmichael shot a 34 . . . that Doug and Stewart Gribble and Rodney Flug made an underwater expedition complete with snorkle tube and face mask to retrieve 35 little white sunken treasure, known as golf balls, on the No 2 hole . . . that Lota Tibbles played one game of golf, but hasn't been back since (don't get discouraged Lota) . . . that everyone is very pleased the lone golfers have finished harvest and are beginning to join in the golfing activities again.

That's all from the par-tee line this week so until our next meeting, may everyone "make their long putts good, like a great golfer should".
